“ WHEREAS the raising or keeping a standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in time of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law; And whereas it is judged necessary by His Majesty, and this present Parliament, that a Body of Forces should be constituted for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions of His Majesty's Crown, and that the whole Number of such Forces should consist of Two hundred twenty seven thousand four hundred and forty two effective Officers and Men including His Majesty's Forces serving in the East India; And whereas no Man can be deprived of Life or Limb, or subjected in time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within the Rules by Statute Law, or in any other manner than by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless, it being requisite for the raising up all the better mentioned Forces in their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or fly up Sedition, or shall desert His Majesty's Service, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Terms of the Law will allow; Be it therefore enacted by His Majesty's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person who is or shall be commissioned or is Pay as an Officer, or who is or shall be listed or is Pay as a Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, shall, at any time during the Continuance of this Act, begin, excite, excite or join in any Mutiny or Sedition, in His Majesty's Land or Marine Forces, or shall not use his utmost Endeavour to suppress the same, or owing to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny, shall omit, without Delay, give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer, or shall refuse himself before the Ensign; or shall fraudulently shroud or deliver up any Comrade, Comrade, Post or Guard committed to his Charge, or which he shall be commanded to defend; or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress or Post, to deliver up in the Enemy, or to abandon the same; or shall speak Words, or use any other means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer, or others, to mutiny before the Enemy; or fraudulently to shroud or deliver up any Comrade, Comrade, Post or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall leave his Post before relieved; or shall be found sleeping on his Post; or shall hold Correspondence with, or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel or Enemy of His Majesty, either by Letter, Message, Signs or Tokens, in any manner or way whatsoever; or shall trust or enter into any Terms with such Rebel or Enemy, without His Majesty's Licence, or Licence of the General or Chief Commander; or shall strike or use any Violence against his superior Officer, being in the Execution of his Office; or shall deliver any lawful Command of his superior Officer; or shall desert His Majesty's Service; all and every Person and Persons so offending in any of the Matters before mentioned, whether such Officer shall be committed within this Realm, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions, or in Foreign Parts, upon Land, or upon the Sea, shall suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court Martial shall be awarded.

“ II. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That no Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier who shall desert His Majesty's Service, shall be or run from the Peace and Punishment imposed by this Act for such Offence, by again entering into His Majesty's Service; but any such Soldier shall, notwithstanding such subsequent Enlistment, be deemed to have deserted His Majesty's Service, and shall in like manner suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court Martial shall be awarded.

LXXV. And he it further enacted, That Notice shall be given to the Lord Mayor of the City of Dublin at least Twenty-four Hours before the March of any Troops or Companies of Soldiers out of the said City, or in case of Emergency, as long before such March as the nature of the case shall permit, of the Number of Troops or Companies appointed to march; whereupon the Lord Mayor for the time being shall furnish a proportionable Number of Cabs out of the Licensed Cabs, Hack Cabs, and other Cabs within the County of the said City, and so from time to time the said Cabs are by Turns to be employed in carrying the Baggage of such Troops or Companies, at the Prices and under the Regulations heretofore mentioned; and it is hereby declared that no Country Cabs or Carriages coming to the Market of the said City, nor any Cabs or Carriages coming to any of the Markets in Ireland, shall be detained or employed against the Will of the Owners, in carrying the Baggage of the Army on any Pretence whatsoever.

Members of Carriages for Troops in Ireland imposed by Lord Lieutenant.

LXXVI. And he it further enacted, That the Number of Carriages to be allowed each Troop or Company in Ireland, shall be from time to time regulated by Order of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, in Proportion to the Establishment of such Troop or Company; and the Sums ordered to be advanced as aforesaid, for the Payment of the Carriage of Baggage by the Officer or Officers respectively, shall be to them repaid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland for the time being, without Fee or Reward, on Oath made by such Officer or Officers before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate of any City or Corporate Town, of his or their Payment of such Sum or Sums for Carriages as aforesaid, and an Account of the same being produced by the Agent of the Regiment, which Account shall have been verified by the Quarter Master General, to be charged conformably to the Orders of the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and the Regulations prescribed by this Act.

Constables, &c. refusing Help.

LXXVII. And he it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any High Constable or Petty Constable, shall wilfully neglect or refuse to execute such Warrant or Warrants of the Justices of the Peace, as shall be directed unto them for providing Carriages, Horses, Beasts, Barges and other Vessels as aforesaid; or shall demand or receive for the Use of the Owners furnishing such Waggons, Wains, Carts, Cars or Carriages, more than the Rates heretofore allowed respectively; or if any Person or Persons, appointed by such Constable or Petty Constable to provide or furnish any Carriage, Hox, Horse, Boat, Barge or other Vessel, shall refuse or neglect to provide the same; or if such Person or Persons, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall wilfully do any Act or Thing, whereby the Execution of the said Warrant shall be hindered or frustrated, every such Constable, or other Person or Persons so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, or less than Forty Shillings, as the Use of the Poor of such Parish or Parishes adjoining to the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, as shall be fixed upon by the Justice or Justices by whom such Offence shall be enquired of, heard and determined; And all and every such Offence and Offences shall and may be enquired of, heard and finally determined, by any One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, dwelling in or near the Place where such Offence shall be committed, who has hereby Power to make the said Penalty to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattle, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owners.

Money paid before Carriage provided as aforesaid.

LXXVIII. And he it further enacted, That the Constable or Petty Constable to whom such Money shall have been paid in Ireland, is and are hereby required, before the Owner of any Carriage or Horse in Ireland shall be compelled to take any Loading, or be forced to proceed in the March with his Carriage, to pay down to the Owner of such Carriage, or his Servant, the full Sum to which the Owner of such Carriage would be entitled for the March in the said Warrant directed to be made, according to the Rate at which such Constable or Petty Constable shall have been paid for the same as aforesaid.

LXXIX. And whereas in consequence of certain Exemptions from Toll, expressly allowed by several Acts of Parliament for His Majesty's Forces on their March, or on Duty, and for the Horses and Carriages attending them, Doubts have arisen whether in all cases not so exempted, the Officers and Soldiers, and the Carriages and Horses, belonging to His Majesty or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, may not be charged with the Payment of Tolls; therefore, he it enacted that Doubts, it is hereby enacted and declared, That all His Majesty's Officers and Soldiers, and their Horses, on Duty on their March, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, or employed in His Service, when conveying the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Wounded, Children or other Persons of or belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or the Arms, Cloaths, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage and other Equipage, or of belonging to His Majesty's Forces on their Marches, or on any Occasion, or Barrack, or Commissariat or other Public Stores of or belonging to His Majesty, or for the Use of His Majesty's Forces, or returning therefrom, were and are, and shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls whatsoever demandable by virtue of any Act of Parliament already made, or hereafter to be made, for Persons, Horses or Carriages passing Turnpike Roads or Bridges, unless by such Act it has been or shall be expressly provided that the said Officers, Soldiers, Carriages and Horses, are and shall be liable equally with others to the Duties.

Officers and Soldiers, &c. on Duty and Carriages employed in His Majesty's Service, exempted from Payment of Tolls.

Duties and Tolls therein authorized to be demanded and taken: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt from the Payment of Toll any Boats, Barges or other Vessels employed in conveying the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children or other Persons or belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or the Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage and other Equipage, of or belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or any Military Stores, along any Canal, but the same shall be liable to Toll in like manner as other Boats, Barges and Vessels are liable thereto.

LXXX. And whereas the respective Sums of Money by this Act appointed to be paid to the Constables by the Officers demanding such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges or other Vessels, may not, in many cases, be sufficient to defray the Charge and Expence of providing the same, inasmuch that the said Constables may frequently be at great Charges over and above what is received by them of the said Officers, to the great Burthen of the Townships of which they are Constables, or else the Persons providing such Carriages are grievously oppressed: For Remedy whereof, and that the said Overplus Charge may be borne by each County or Riding at the several Charges of such County or Riding: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Treasurer or Treasurers of each respective County or Riding shall, without Fee or Reward, pay unto such Constable all and every such reasonable Sum or Sums of Money, as by him paid or laid out for such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels, over and above what was or might or have been paid by the Officers requiring such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels, out of the public Stock of such County or Riding, according to such Rates, Orders, Rules and Directions, as the said Justices of the Peace, in their Quarter Sessions assembled, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, make, enact and appoint (such Orders shall be made without Fee or Reward); regard being always had to the State of the Year and the Length and Condition of the Ways by and through which such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels, are to travel and pass.

LXXXI. And, in case the said public Stock of the County or Riding be not sufficient (over and above the other Purposes for which it was raised) to satisfy the extraordinary Charge of Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels before mentioned, It is hereby further enacted, That the said Justices of the Peace, in their General Quarter Sessions, shall have Power from time to time, to raise Monies upon the respective Counties or Ridings, in such manner as they now raise Monies for County Gaols and Bridges, to satisfy the said extraordinary Charge of Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to quarter Officers and Soldiers in Scotland, in such and the like Places and Houses as they might have been quartered in by the Laws in force in England at the time of its Union with England; and that the Possessors of such Houses shall only be liable to furnish the said Officers and Soldiers quartered there, as by the said Laws in force at the time of the said Union was provided; and that no Officer shall be obliged to pay for his Lodging where he shall be regularly billeted, except in the Suburbs of Edinburgh.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Carriages for the Service of the Forces from time to time quartered or marching in Scotland, shall be provided as like manner, and at the Rate, and the Purchase of such Carriages shall be paid, as was directed by the Law in force in Scotland at the time of its Union with England.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Troops or Parties upon Command have Occasion in their March to pass regular Ferries in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, it shall and may be lawful for the Commanding Officer either to pass over with his Party, as Passengers, or to hire the Ferry Boat entirely to himself and his Party, debarring others for that time in his Option; and in case he shall choose to take Passage for himself and Party as Passengers, he shall only pay for himself and for each Person, Officer or Soldier under his Command, Half of the ordinary Rate payable by single Persons at any such Ferry; and in case he shall hire the Ferry Boat for himself and Party, he shall pay Half of the ordinary Rate for each Boat or Boat; and in such Places where there are no regular Ferries, but that all Passengers hire Boats at the Rate they can agree for, Officers, with or without Parties, are to agree for Boats at the Rate as other Persons do in the like case.

LXXXV. And, for the better Preservation of Game in or near such Place where any Officers or Soldiers shall at any time be quartered, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, any Officer or Soldier shall without Leave of the Lord of the Manor, under his Hand and Seal first had and obtained, take, kill or destroy, any Hare, Coney, Pheasant, Partridge, Pigeon, or any other Sort of Fowl, Poultry or Fish, or His Majesty's Game, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and upon Complaint thereof shall be upon Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, convicted before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, who is and are hereby empowered and authorized to hear and determine the same; that in so far, every Officer so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, to be distributed among the Poor of the Place where such Offence shall be committed; and every Officer commanding in Chief upon the Place, for every such Offence committed by any Soldier under his Command, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings, to be paid and distributed in manner aforesaid: And if upon Conviction made by the Justices of the Peace, and Demand thereof also made by the Constable or Overseers of the Poor, such Officer shall refuse or neglect, and not within Two Days pay the said respective Fines, such Officer is refusing or neglecting shall forfeit, and he is hereby declared to have forfeited his Commission, and his Commission is hereby declared to be void and void.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall receive or bring Money from any Officer employed on the Recruiting Service, or from any Non Commissioned Officer or Private Soldier belonging where the same shall be granted by any such Officer as aforesaid, for any Justice at the Place upon the Production of a Certificate in Writing from such Officer, which he is hereby required to give, to make an Order in Writing, under his Hand, upon the Collector of the Excise of the District wherein such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall reside, or the Person officiating for such Collector, requiring him to pay to such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier any Sum of Money due to him in such Order, not exceeding what the Pay of such Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier would amount to for the Period in which such Furlough shall be extended as aforesaid; Such Justice of the Peace taking particular Care to Rate upon the Furlough in Words the Amount so due to him to be paid, and the Periods in regard to which the same has been ordered to be paid, both and severally, counterbalancing the Statement by his Signature, and further specifying upon the Order to such Collector of the Excise, or other Person officiating for him, the Date of the Furlough originally granted, and the Name of the Commanding Officer by whom issued, and the Sum so authorized shall be paid accordingly upon Production and Delivery on Demand of such Order, by such Collector of Excise or other Person, out of any Public Money in his Hands, and the same shall be allowed in his Accounts, and such Order of Justice shall be taken as Cash in the Payments of Duty of Excise required by him; and all Sums of Money so advanced out of any Duties of Excise shall be repaid to the Account of the said Duties by the Agents of the Regiments to which the Men to whom the same shall have been paid shall respectively belong, to any Person or Persons authorized by the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, or any Three or more of them, to draw for and receive the same: Provided always, that if any Justice of the Peace shall not think fit to make such Order for paying any such Money as aforesaid, he shall have no Reason for such Refusal in Writing at the Back of the Furlough.

XXIV. And, to prevent as far as may be, any unjust or fraudulent Arrangements that may be made up a Soldier, whereby His Majesty and the Public may be deprived of their Service, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person whatsoever, who (or who shall be) sold, or who shall sell and enter vendit into a Volunteer in His Majesty's Service as a Soldier, shall be liable to be taken out of His Majesty's Service by any Process or Execution whatsoever, other than from some Criminal Matter, unless for a real Debt, or other just Debt of Action; and unless, before the taking out of such Process or Execution (not being for a Criminal Matter), the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs thereon, or some other Person or Persons on his or their Behalf, shall make Affidavit before one or more Judge or Judges of the Court of Record, or other Court, out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, that in his or their Knowledge the original Sum justly due and owing to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs from the Defendant or Defendants, in the Action or Cause of Action on which such Process shall issue, or the original Debt for which such Execution shall be first out, amounts to the Value of Twenty Pounds at least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the said Action, or in any other Action on which the same shall be grounded; a Memorandum of which Oath shall be marked on the Back of such Process or Writ, for which Memorandum or Oath no Fee shall be taken; And if any Person shall nevertheless be arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for one or more Judge or Judges of such Court, upon Complaint thereof made by the Party himself, or by any his superior Officer, to examine into the same by the Oath of the Parties or either, and by Witnesses under his or their Hands and Seals, to discharge such Soldier so arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, without paying any Fee or Tax, upon due Proof made before him or them, that such Soldier so arrested was legally enlisted as a Soldier in His Majesty's Service, and arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act; and also as a reward to the Party for complaining such Costs as such Judge or Judges shall think reasonable; for the Recovery whereof he shall have the full Remedy that the Person who takes out the said Execution might have had for his Costs, or the Plaintiff in the said Action might have had for the Recovery of his Costs, in case Judgment had been given for him with Costs against the Defendants in the said Action.

XXV. And, to the end that honest Creditors who already are, or the Recovery of their just Debts due to them from Persons entering into and living in His Majesty's Service, may not be hindered from suing for the same, but on the contrary may be aided and forwarded in their Suits; and instead of an Arrest, which may at times hurt the Service, and occasion great Expence and Delay to themselves, may be enabled to proceed in a more easy and cheap Manner, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Notice first given in Writing of the Cause of Action to such Person or Persons so entered, or to him or her or their Law Place of Residence before such living, to file a Certificate Appraised in any Action to be brought or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, as to the extent such Plaintiff so proceed therein in Judgment and Controversy, and to have as Execution thereupon, other than against the Body or Estates of him or them so filed as aforesaid; this Act, or any thing herein, or any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from the passing of this Act, no Soldier being arrested or confined for Debt in any Prison, Goal or other Place, shall be entitled to any Part of his Pay from the Day of such Arrest or Confinement, until the Day of his Return to the Regiment, Troop or Company to which he shall belong.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Commandants, upon making up their Accounts, and also upon returning from any Foreign Service, shall take the Oath declared in the Schedule to this Act aforesaid, marked (M), which Oath, if taken in any Part of the United Kingdom, shall be taken before some Justice of the Peace, or Magistrate, and if taken on Foreign Service, before the Officer commanding in Chief, or the Second in Command, or the Quarter Master or Deputy Quarter Master General, or any Assistant Quarter Master General of the Army to which he shall be attached, who shall respectively Lay Tutors to administer the same.

CXVIII. And

CXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Paymaster or other Commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Forces, or any Steward, or Commissary, or Deputy or Assistant Commissary, or other Person employed in the Commissariat Department, or in any manner in the Care or Distribution of any Money, Provision, Forge or Store, belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or for their Use, who shall wilfully or fraudulently misapply, or enable to be pilfered or fraudulently misapplied, or shall knowingly or wilfully permit or suffer any Money, Provision, Forge, Arms, Clothing, Ammunition, or other Military Stores, to be pilfered or fraudulently misapplied, or to be spoiled or damaged, may be tried for the same by and before a General Court Martial, and it shall be lawful for such Court Martial to adjudge any such Paymaster, or other Commissioned Officer, Steward, or Commissary, or Deputy or Assistant Commissary, or other Person, to be transported as a Penal for Life, or for any certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Punishment of Pillory, Fine, Imprisonment, Dismissal from His Majesty's Service, and Incapacity of serving His Majesty in any Office Civil or Military, as any such Court shall think fit, according to the Nature and Degree of the Offence, and every such Officer or Person shall, in Addition to any other Punishment, make good, at his own Expense, the Loss and Damage sustained which shall have been occasioned by such Court Martial; and the Loss and Damage so sustained as aforesaid may be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in any other Courts of Law having Jurisdiction, where any Person adjudged by a Court Martial to have incurred any such Penalties, or to make good any such Losses or Damages, shall be subject after the final Judgment shall be confirmed and made known; and after the said Sum shall be recovered and paid, the same shall be applied and disposed of as His Majesty shall direct and appoint.

CXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Non Commissioned Officer who shall be considered, as a General or Regimental Court Martial, of having enclosed or misapplied any Money with which he may have been entrusted, for the Payment of the Men under his Command, or for adding Men into His Majesty's Service, shall be reduced to forfeit the Ranks of a private Soldier, and be put under Stoppages until the Money be made good, and suffer such Corporal Punishment (not extending to Life or Limb) as the Court Martial shall think fit.

CXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteenth, no Paymaster General, or Paymaster of the Army, Paymaster of the Marines, Secretary at War, Commissary, Major Major, Paymaster of a Corps or District, or any other Officer whatsoever, or three Under Officers, shall receive any Fees, or make any Deductions whatsoever, out of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Army, or from their Agents, which shall grow due from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteenth, other than the usual Deductions allowed by His Majesty's Regulations; and such other necessary Deductions as shall from time to time be required to be made under any Act of Parliament now in force, or hereafter to be made or directed by His Majesty, under His Royal Sign Manual.

CXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Paymaster, Agent or Clerk of any Garrison, Regiment, Troop, or Company, shall wilfully detain or withhold, for the Space of One Month, the Pay of any Officer or Soldier (Cloth and all other just Allowances being deducted), after such Pay shall be due by him or them received; or if any Officers having received their Soldiers Pay, shall refuse to pay each Non Commissioned Officer and Soldier their respective Pay when it shall become due, according to the several Rates established in His Majesty's Orders, then upon Proof thereof before a Court Martial, as aforesaid, to be for that Purpose duly held and summoned, every such Paymaster, Agent, Clerk or Officer, so offending, shall be discharged from his Employment, and shall forfeit to the Informer, upon Conviction before the said Court, the several Pounds, to be levied as aforesaid, and the Informer, if a Soldier (if he demands it), shall be and he is hereby discharged from any further Service; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXXIII. And, for enforcing a punctual Observance of the Rules and Orders established, as to be established for the due Appropriation of the Public Funds applicable to Army Service; and that a true and regular Account may be kept and rendered by the Agents of the several Garrisons, Regiments and Independent Troops and Companies, the said Agents are hereby required and directed to observe such Orders and Directions as shall from time to time be given by His Majesty, under His Sign Manual, or by the Secretary at War for the time being, by His Majesty's Command, or by His Majesty's Chief Governor or Governor of Island, or by the Lord Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being; and if any Agent shall refuse or neglect to do so, or comply with such Orders and Directions, he shall for the first Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered by a summary Issue of Information, for the Use of His Majesty; and for the second Offence be discharged from his Employment as Agent of the Garrison, Regiment, Troop, or Company, in respect to which he shall have been guilty of such Offence, and he shall be liable to have or hold such Sum by him at himself.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may, from time to time during the Continuance of this Act, be lawful to and for the said Lord High Admiral, or Three or more of the said Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, to grant a Commission, under his or their respective Hand or Hands, to any Officer of Royal Marines in His Majesty's Service, not under the Degree of a Field Officer, for the holding a General Court Martial at any Place or Places, on Shore, in this Kingdom, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions; in every of which Courts Martial all or any of the Offences aforesaid, and all or any other of the Offences hereinafter specified, shall be tried and proceeded against in such manner as by this Act is directed.

posal Parliament, adjudge the Offender, if they shall think fit, to be transported as a Felon for Life, or for a certain Term of Years, according to the Degree of the Offence: And if such New Commissioned Officer or Marine, having been adjudged to be transported as a Felon, shall afterwards (without Leave from His Majesty, or from the Governor or Commanding Officer of the Place to which he shall have been transported) return into any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, before the Expiration of the Term limited by such Sentence, and shall be convicted thereof in the Ordinary Courts of Law, he shall suffer Death.

XV. And be it further enacted and declared, That in case of any Non Commissioned Officer or Marine tried and convicted of Delinquency, whensoever the Court Martial which shall pass Sentence upon such Trial shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court Martial may, instead of awarding a corporal Punishment, adjudge the Offender according to the Nature of the Offence, if they shall think fit, to be transported as a Felon for Life or for a certain Term of Years; and if such Non Commissioned Officer or Marine, having been adjudged to be transported as a Felon, shall afterwards (without Leave from His Majesty, or from the Governor or Commanding Officer of the Place to which he shall have been transported) return into or be found at large without Leave as aforesaid, or other lawful cause, within any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad, other than the Place to which he shall have been transported, before the Expiration of the Term limited by such Sentence, and shall be convicted thereof at the ordinary Course of Law, every such Person shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon without Benefit of Clergy.

XVI. XXVII. And whereas there is and may be Detention for the marching and quartering of the said Royal Marine Forces in several Parts of this Kingdom: Be it further enacted, That, for and during the Continuance of this Act, and as long as (in pursuance of an Order or Orders in Writing in that behalf, under the Hand of the said Lord High Admiral, or under the Hands of Three or more of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral for the time being), it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constables, Turnkeys, Headboroughs and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns and Villages, and other Places within England and Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and in their District or Aliens, for any one Juror of the Peace inhabiting in or near any such City, Town, Village or Place, and for on others; and such Constables, and other Chief Magistrates as aforesaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Marines, both Officers and Private Men, in His Majesty's Service, in Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling-houses, and the Houses of Sellers of Wine by Retail, to be drunk in their own Houses, or Places thence belonging; and all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cyder or Mead, by Retail, to be drunk in Houses, other than and except the House or Houses of any Distillers, who keep Houses or Places for distilling Brandy or Strong Waters, and the House of any Shopkeeper whose principal Dealings shall be more in other Goods and Merchandize than in Brandy and Strong Waters (so as such Distillers and Shopkeepers do not permit or suffer Topping in his or their Houses), and in an order, and in no private Houses whatsoever, without the Consent of the Occupier, nor shall any more Billets at any time be ordered than there are sufficient Royal Marines present to be quartered; and if any Constable, Turnkeyman, or such like Officer or Magistrate, as aforesaid, shall refuse to quarter or billet any such Officer or Private Man in any such private House without the Consent of the Occupier, in such case such Occupier shall have in or to their Remedy at Law against such Magistrate or Officers, for the Damages that such Occupier shall sustain thereby: And if any Marine Officer shall take upon him to quarter Private Men otherwise than is directed and allowed by this Act, or shall use or suffer any Menace or Compulsion in any Mayors, Constables or other Civil Officers, before mentioned, tending to deter and discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty hereby required or appointed; such Marine Officer shall for every such Offence (being thereof convicted before any Two or more of the next Justices of the Peace of the County, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses) be deemed and taken to be ipso facto outlawed, and shall be utterly disabled to know or hold any Military Employment within this Kingdom, or in His Majesty's Service; provided the said Condition be affirmed at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the said County, and a Certificate thereof be transmitted to the Judge Advocate, who is hereby obliged to certify the same to the next Court Martial; and in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved, in that such Constable, Turnkeyman or Headborough, Chief Officer or Magistrate (such Chief Officer or Magistrate not being a Justice of the Peace), has quartered or billeted in his Houses greater Number of Royal Marines than he ought to bear in Proportion to his Neighbourhood, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty, where such Royal Marines are quartered; or in case such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then on Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justice or Justices respectively shall have, and it is hereby declared to have, Power to relieve such Person by ordering such and so many of the said Royal Marines to be removed and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as they shall find fit; and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Royal Marines accordingly.

XXIX. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted, That the Marine Officers and Private Men, so quartered and billeted as aforesaid, shall be received and furnished with Diet and Small Beer by the Owners of the Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling-houses, and the Houses of Sellers of Wine, by Retail, to be drunk in their own Houses or Places thence belonging, and other Houses in which they are allowed to be quartered and billeted by this Act, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates hereinafter mentioned to be payable out of the Subsidience Money for Diet and Small Beer.

and not to the Inhabitor or other Person on whom such Non-Commission Officers and Private Men are quartered; any thing here contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Marine Officer shall take, or seek to be taken, or knowingly suffers to be taken any Money of any Period for enrolling the quartering of Officers or Private Men, or any of them, in any House allowed by this Act, every such Officer shall be cashiered, and be incapable of serving in any Military Employment whatsoever.

XXXII. And whereas it may be for the Benefit of the Service, for the Commanding Officer to have Power to exchange the Batches or Quarters of Marines quartered in the same Town or Place? Be it therefore enacted, That the Commanding Officer of Royal Marines, in any Town or Place where such Marine Forces are quartered, shall and he is hereby declared to have Power from time to time to exchange any Marine or Marines quartered in such Town or Place for any other Marine or Marines quartered in the same Town or Place, provided the Number of Men do not exceed the Number at that time allotted on such House respectively, where such Men shall be exchanged; and the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of the Cities, Towns and Villages, or other Places, where any of the said Royal Marine Forces shall be quartered, are hereby required to suffer such Men to be exchanged accordingly.

XXXIV. And, that the Quarters both of the said Marine Officers and Private Men, while on Shore as aforesaid, any, during the Continuance of this Act, be fully paid and satisfied, and His Majesty's Duties of Excise better answered, be it enacted, That, from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, every Officer or other Person to whom it belongs to receive, or that shall actually receive the Pay or Subsidance Money, for one or more particular Company or Companies of the said Royal Marine Forces or otherwise, shall immediately upon each Receipt of every particular Sum which shall from time to time be paid, returned, or come to his or their Hands, on Account of Pay or Subsidance, give public Notice thereof to all Persons keeping Inns, or other Places where Officers or Private Men are quartered by virtue of this Act; and shall also appoint the said Insholders, and others, to repair to their Quarters at such times as they shall appoint for the Distribution and Payment of the said Pay or Subsidance Money to such Officers or Private Men, which shall be within Four Days at the farthest after the Receipt of the same, as aforesaid; and the said Insholders, and others, shall then and there request such Officer or Officers with the Accounts or Debts (if any shall be), between them and the Officers and Private Men so quartered in their respective Houses; which Accounts the said Officer or Officers in or are hereby required to accept of, and immediately pay the same, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsidance be distributed either to the Officers or Private Men: Provided the said Accounts exceed not, for One Marine Commission Officer under the Degree of a Captain, for each Officer's Diet and Small Beer, per Diem, One Shilling; and if each Officer shall have a Horse or Horses, for each such Horse or Horses, for their Hay and Straw, per Diem, Six pence; nor for One Private Man's Diet and Small Beer, per Diem, Four pence; and if any Officer or Officers as aforesaid, shall not give Notice as aforesaid, and shall not immediately, upon producing such Account thereof, receive and pay the same, upon Complaint and Oath made thereby by any Two Witnesses, at the next Quarter Sessions for the County or City wherein such Quarters were (which Oath the Justices of the Peace at such Sessions are hereby authorized and required to administer), the Paymaster, or Person for the time being authorized to pay the said Royal Marine Forces, is hereby required and authorized (upon Certificate of the said Justices, before whom such Oath was made, of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Persons to whom the same is owing), to pay and satisfy the said Sums out of the Arrears due to the said Marine Officer or Officers, upon Penalty that such Paymaster or Person shall forfeit their respective Place or Places of Paymaster or otherwise, and be discharged from holding the same for the future; and in case there shall be no Arrears due to the said Officer or Officers, then the said Paymaster or Person for the time being authorized to pay the said Royal Marine Forces, is hereby authorized and required to deduct the same he shall pay, pursuant to the Certificate of the said Justices, out of the next Pay or Subsidance Money of the Company to which such Officer or Officers shall belong; and such Officer or Officers, shall, for each their Oath, or for neglecting to give Notice of the Receipt of such Pay or Subsidance Money as aforesaid, be deemed and taken, and are hereby declared to be so, as aforesaid.

paid to the Officer to whom any such Marine shall or doth belong; and in case any such Officer who shall be excused as aforesaid, of having knowingly received any Arms, Cloaths, Caps or other Furniture belonging to The King, or any such Articles or any generally denoted Regimental Necessaries, or of having caused the Colonel of such Clashes to be changed, contrary to the Intent of this Act, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels wherewith to satisfy what may be due to the Value of the Penalty recovered against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such case such Justice or Justices of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, either commit such Offender to the Common Goal, there to remain without Bread or Manger, for the Space of Three Months, or cause such Offender to be publicly or privately whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, directly or indirectly, procure or procure any Marine in the Service of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to desert or leave such Service as aforesaid, every such Person or Persons so offending as aforesaid, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or to any other Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if it shall happen that any such Offender be convicted as aforesaid both for any Goods and Chattels, Lands or Tenements, to the Value of One hundred Pounds, to pay and satisfy the same, or if from the Circumstances and the materials of the Crime it shall appear to the Court before which the said Conviction shall be made as aforesaid, that any such Forfeiture was a sufficient Punishment for such Offence, it shall be lawful for such Court to commit any such Offender to Prison, there to remain for any time not exceeding Twelve Months, without Bail or Mainprize, and also to stand in the Pillory for the Space of One Hour, in some Market Town next adjoining to the Place where the Offence was committed in open Market there, or in the Market Town next to which where the said Offence was committed.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties by this Act imposed for procuring or procuring any Marine to desert within that Part of Great Britain called England, may and shall be so and be recoverable in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and for such like Offences as shall be committed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be sued for and recoverable in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and for such like Offences as shall be committed in Ireland, shall be sued for and recoverable in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin; and for any such like Offences as shall be committed in any of the Dominions of His Majesty shall and may be sued for and recoverable in any Court of Record of His Majesty, in the Place where the Offence shall have been committed; for such like Offences as shall have been committed within the Island of Guernsey, the same shall be sued for and be recoverable in the Royal Court of Guernsey; and for such Offences as shall be committed within the Island of Jersey, the same shall be sued for and recoverable in the Royal Court of Jersey; any thing contained in an Act passed in the First Year of King George the First, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That for each of the said Offences as shall be committed within that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, the Penalties herein enacted shall be sued for and be recoverable in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin; and for each of the said Offences as shall be committed within the Isles of Alderney and Sark, the Penalties herein enacted shall be sued for and be recoverable in the Royal Court of Guernsey; and for each of the said Offences as shall be committed within the Isle of Man, the Penalties herein enacted shall be sued for and be recoverable in any of the Courts of Record in the said Island, or in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall voluntarily surrender or deliver himself up as a Defensor from His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, shall be deemed to have been duly notified and to be a Marine, and shall be liable to live in His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, whether such Person shall have been ever actually enlisted as a Marine or not.

LX. And, in order to prevent all Doubts which may arise in relation to punishing Offences committed against former Acts of Parliament made for the Regulation of the Royal Marine Forces while on Shore, be it enacted, That all Crimes and Offences which have been committed against any of the former Acts in that behalf made, and may, during the Continuance of this present Act, be enquired of, be tried, determined, adjudged and punished, before and by the like Courts, Persons, Powers, Authorities, Ways, Means and Methods, as the like Crimes and Offences committed against this present Act, may be enquired of, heard, tried, determined, adjudged and punished.

LXI. Provided always, That no Person shall be liable to be tried or punished for any Offence committed against any of the said former Acts, which shall appear to have been committed more than Three Years before the Enacting of the Commission or Warrant for such Trial; except only for the Offence of Desertion.

LXII. And, to prevent, as he may be, any undue or fraudulent Amendment that may be made up a Marine, whereby His Majesty and the Public may be deprived of their Service, as he is by the said Act, That no Person whatsoever who is accused, or shall come himself as a Plaintiff in the said Act, shall be liable to be removed, during the Continuance of this Act, shall be liable to be removed, as a Plaintiff, by any Person or Persons as aforesaid, or under the taking out of such Power of Arrest, or in any other Case of Action, or under the taking out of such Power of Arrest, or in any other Case of Action, shall make Affidavit before One or more Judge or Judges of the Court of Record, or other Court of which such Process or Execution shall issue, as before such Person, or Persons, as the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Case, shall be in their Knowledge the original Sum justly due, according to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs from the Defendant or Defendants, in the Action or Cause of Action on which such Process shall issue, or the original Debt for which such Execution shall be issued out, returns to the Value of Twenty Pounds at least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the said Action, or in any other Action on which the same shall be grounded: a Memorandum of which Oath shall be marked on the Back of such Process or Writ, for which Memorandum or Oath no Fee shall be taken; and if any Person shall nevertheless be arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for One or more Judge or Judges of such Court, upon Complaint thereof made by the Party himself, or by any his Superior Officer, to examine into the same by the Oath of the Parties or otherwise, and by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals, to discharge such Person or Persons arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, without paying any Fee or Fine, upon due Proof made before him or them that such Person or Persons was legally liable as a Malefactor in His Majesty's Service, and arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act; and also to award to the Party so complaining such Costs as such Judge or Judges shall think reasonable; for the Recovery whereof he shall have the like Remedy that the Person who takes out the said Execution might have had for his Costs, or the Plaintiff in the like Action might have had for the Recovery of his Costs, in case Judgment had been given for him, with Costs, against the Defendant in the said Action.

LXIII. And to the end that honest Creditors, who are only at the Recovery of their just Debts due to them from Persons entered as Malefactors in His Majesty's Service, may not be hindered from suing for the same, but as the contrary may be allured and forwarded in their Suits; and instead of an Arrest, which may at once halt the Service, and occasion a great Expence and Delay to themselves, may be enabled to proceed in a more speedy and cheap Method, he is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Notice first given in Writing of the Cause of Action to such Person or Persons so entered, or let at his or their Place of Residence before such entry, to file a Common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon Account of any Debt whatsoever, in as to enable such Plaintiff so proceed therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and to have an Execution thereupon, other than and against the Body or Bodies of him or them so entered as aforesaid; this Act, or any thing herein, or any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That, from the passing of this Act, no Person, being arrested or committed for Debt in any Prison, Goal or other Place, shall be entitled to any Part of his Pay from the Day of such Arrest or Commitment until the Day of his Release to the Regent or Company to which he shall belong.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That every Gentleman to whom any Notice shall have been given that any Person is his Custody for any Offence as a Malefactor, and liable to serve His Majesty, on the Expiration of his Imprisonment, shall give One Month's Notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty before the Day on which the Imprisonment of such Person will expire, according to his Commitment or Sentence of the Period of Expiration of such Imprisonment.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any High Constable, Constable, Beadle or other Officer or Persons whatsoever, who, by virtue or colour of this Act, shall quarter or billet, or be employed in quartering or billeting any Marine Officers or Private Men, shall neglect or refuse for the Space of Two Hours to quarter or billet such Officer or Marines when thereto required, in such manner as is by this Act directed, provided sufficient Notice be given before the Arrival of such Forces; or shall receive, demand, contract or agree for any Sum or Sums of Money, or any Reward whatsoever, for or on account of quartering, or in order to enable any Person or Persons whatsoever, from quartering or receiving into his, her or their House or Houses, any such Officer or Marines; or in case any Volunteer, or any other Person liable by this Act to have any Officer or Marine billeted or quartered on him or her, shall refuse to receive or refuse any such Officer or Marine to be quartered or billeted upon him or her as aforesaid; or shall refuse to furnish or allow, according to the Direction of this Act, the several Things heretofore respectively directed to be furnished or allowed to Non-Commissioned Officers or Marines to be quartered or billeted on him or her, as aforesaid, at the Rate heretofore mentioned, and shall be thereof convicted, before any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, City or Liberty, within which such Offence shall be committed, either by his own Confession, or by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses (whose Oath the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby empowered to administer), every such High Constable, Constable, Beadle or other Officer or Person so offending, shall forfeit for every such Offence, the Sum of Five Pounds, or any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, or less than Forty Shillings (as the said Justice or Justices before whom the Matter shall be heard, shall in his or their Discretion think fit); to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Person so offending, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of such Justice or Justices before whom such Offender shall be convicted, or of One or more of them, to be directed to any other Constable within the County, City or Liberty, or to any Officer or Overseer of the Poor of the Parish where the Offender shall dwell; and the said Sum of Five Pounds, or the said Sum not exceeding Five Pounds or less than Forty Shillings, when he shall be put to the Quotation of the Poor of the Parish where the Offence shall be committed, or to some One of them, for the Use of the Poor of such Parish.

LXVII. And, for the better governing Marine in quartering or billeting the Royal Marines in pursuance of this Act, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace within the respective Counties, Cities or Liberties, by Warrant or Order under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, at any time or times during the Continuance of this Act, to require and command any High Constable, Constable, Beadle or other Officer who shall quarter or billet any Royal Marine in pursuance of this Act, to give an Account in Writing unto the said Justice or Justices respecting the same, of the Number of Officers and Private Men who shall be quartered or billeted by them, and also the Names of the Hostkeepers or Persons upon whom every such Officer or Private Man shall be quartered or billeted, together with an Account of the Street or Place where every such Hostkeeper dwells,

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, for amending the Laws relating to the Local Militia in England. [18 April 1813.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Local Militia in England: And whereas it is expedient that the same should be explained and amended: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act as requires the Deputy Lieutenants, at their Subdivision Meetings, to ballot for Local Militia Men in the rooms of all those whole Terms of Service will expire on the Twentieth Day of November ensuing the holding such Meetings, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and, from and after the passing of this Act, the Deputy Lieutenants shall, and they are hereby empowered and required, immediately after the Fourteenth Day of November in each Year, to proceed under the several Provisions of the Laws relating to the Local Militia, to the Ballotting for Local Militia Men to supply all Deficiencies and Vacancies which shall have arisen before the Fourteenth Day of November, and also all Deficiencies and Vacancies which will arise after such Fourteenth Day of November, and before the First Day of April in the next Year, by means of any Men of the Local Militia being entitled to their Discharge at any time before such First Day of April, by the Expiration of the Terms of Service of such Men; and for that Purpose to appoint and hold Subdivision Meetings on or as soon after the said Fourteenth Day of November in each Year, as the same can conveniently be held, and to continue to hold such Meetings with as little Delay as possible, until all such Vacancies and Deficiencies shall be supplied; and upon the enrolling such Men, it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and he is hereby required to discharge the Men in whose stead they shall be enrolled, as directed by the said recited Act.

II. And whereas a certain Weekly Allowance is payable to the Wives and Families of Men serving in the Local Militia, in certain cases in the said Act and the said Acts relating to the Militia specified; but such Allowance is not payable in any rateable Proportion for any Period less than a Week; and it is therefore expedient that the same should be made payable for any fractional Part of a Week: Be it therefore enacted, That the Allowance made to the Wives and Families of Men serving in the Local Militia shall be payable and paid in a rateable Proportion of the fractional Part of a Week, whenever the Period for which any Allowance shall be made under the said recited Act, on account of the Assembling of the Local Militia for any of the Purposes therein mentioned shall make it requisite, in order to the giving such Allowance for the whole Period of the Men being so assembled as aforesaid.

III. And whereas by the Provisions of the said recited Act, where the Number of Men raised in any County, Riding or Place, is sufficient, the Local Militia thereof is to be formed into One or more Regiments, consisting of not more than Twelve or less than Eight Companies; and it is expedient that Power should be given to His Majesty to form the Local Militia of any County, City or Place, into Battalions consisting of Six Companies, if He thinks fit: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, whenever He shall think fit, to form the Local Militia of any County, City or Place, into Battalions consisting each of not less than six Companies.

IV. And whereas by the said recited Act, Power is given to His Majesty to direct any Number of Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Corporals, actually serving in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, at the time of passing the said Act, to be retained for so long a time during the Continuance of the present War, as His Majesty should think fit; and although Provision is intended to be made in the said recited Act, as to the Pay, Emoluments and Advantages to which such Officers as well as Non-Commissioned Officers and Corporals so retained are to be entitled, yet so sufficient Provision is made for the Pay, Emoluments and Advantages to Officers so retained: Be it therefore enacted, That all such Officers so retained as aforesaid shall be entitled to such Pay, Emoluments and Advantages as other Officers are by Law entitled to.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Drummer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, whether on permanent Pay or otherwise, shall be allowed to enlist into the Army, Navy or Marine, or Regular Militia, or to engage himself as a Substitute or Volunteer in the Regular Militia at any time, until with the Consent in Writing of the Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, given for that Purpose.

VI. And whereas in cases where the Local Militia of any County shall have consisted of Two or more Regiments, Battalions or Corps, and One shall be reduced (in consequence of the Reduction of the Quota of such Local Militia for such County, under the said recited Act), a Power is given to His Majesty so order that any Number of Field Officers and Officers, together with the Adjutant and Quarter Master who was serving at the time of passing the said recited Act, might be appointed to act in any other Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia within the said County, and should succeed to Vacancies which might occur in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps: Be it enacted, That all Supernumerary Adjutants and Quarter Masters, who may be retained under the said recited Provision, or in any other manner, shall succeed to any Vacancies which may occur in their respective Ranks, in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps within the same County, although they may have not been before appointed as aforesaid, to act with such Regiment, Battalion or Corps.

VII. And whereas by the said recited Act, a Power is given to Persons enrolled in the Local Militia of England, being desirous of removing from one County to another County, at any time during the Period of their Service, to do so, under the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions therein contained, and it is reasonable that a like Power should be given to remove from England to Scotland, or vice versa: Be it therefore enacted, That in case any Person enrolled to serve as a Private in the Local Militia of any County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City or Place, in England or Scotland respectively, shall be desirous of removing from England to Scotland, or from Scotland to England, at any time or times during the Period of his Service, it shall be lawful for him to do so, upon giving such Notice and pursuing all such Directions, and in all respects under and subject to the same Rules, Regulations and Restrictions as are prescribed in the said recited Act for Persons removing from one County in England to another County in England.

VIII. And whereas Mistakes occasionally occur in the Christian Names of Persons returned as liable to serve in the Local Militia, and Doubts have arisen, whether the Persons drawn out in such cases be made to serve, or any Penalties can be levied for Neglect of the Provision of the said recited Act: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That no Return or List or Ballot shall be deemed irregular, by reason of any Mistake in the Christian Name of the Person returned and ballotted, and all the Provisions of the said recited Act shall be enforced against the Person so returned and ballotted in like manner in every respect as if the Christian Name had been correctly returned; provided that Notice of the Person being ballotted shall have been given to the Person so ballotted according to the Provision of the said recited Act: Provided always, that every Person so returned and ballotted under any wrong Christian Name as aforesaid, shall be entitled to claim any Exemption to which he may be entitled after being so ballotted, and although the Days and Times for hearing Appeals shall have passed.

IX. And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Mode of apportioning such Number of Men as may be ordered to be raised for the Local Militia among the several Subdivisions and Parishes of each County, so far as relates to the regard to be had to the Effective Yeomanry and Volunteers then actually serving: Be it therefore declared and enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in order to a due Apportionment thereof, the Number of Local Militia required to be raised in any County or Subdivision, shall be added to the Number of Effective Yeomanry or Volunteers actually serving for such County or Subdivision, and duly returned as such to the manner required by the several Acts of Parliament relating to Yeomanry and Volunteers; and the total Number of Local Militia and Volunteers shall be apportioned over the Subdivisions and Parishes of such County, and the effective Yeomanry and Volunteers actually serving in any Subdivision or Parish shall then be taken in Part of the Quota apportioned upon such Subdivision or Parish, so that the Number of Men to be raised by such Subdivision or Parish shall in no case exceed such Number as, in Addition to the Number of Effective Yeomanry and Volunteers actually serving, will amount to the Quota apportioned upon such Subdivision or Parish: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to interfere in any Apportionment which may have been made under the Provisions of the said recited Act, but every such Apportionment shall remain in full Force and Effect, and be acted upon as the proper Apportionment, until the Deputy Lieutenants shall see fit to make any new Apportionment under the Provisions of this Act.

X. And whereas various Delays often occur in the completing the Ballots for Men to serve in the Local Militia, and it is expedient that Power should be given to meet Fines in such cases where the Men have been actually enrolled before the period usually fixed for the Training and Exercising of the Local Militia: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order of the Secretary of State made for that Purpose, to remit any Fine or Fines, or any Proportions of any Fine or Fines, incurred by any County, Hundred, Parish or Place by reason of the full Number required not having been enrolled within the Periods specified in the said recited Act in respect of all Men actually enrolled before the First Day of April, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants in any General Meeting, and they are hereby required to ascertain and by Ballot the Order in which the respective Subdivisions, Hundreds and Parishes in their respective Counties shall stand as to the supplying any Vacancies or Vacancies that may exist or arise therein by reason of the Appointment of any Person serving in the Local Militia of any such County to be a Drummer, in the same manner as they may do where Vacancies arise by reason of the Appointment of Persons to be Sergeants and Corporals, and shall in like manner, immediately after the same shall be so ascertained and fixed, cause such Subdivisions, Hundreds and Parishes respectively to be entered in such Order as a List to be prepared for that Purpose; and such Vacancies shall be supplied by such Subdivisions, Hundreds and Parishes in the Order in which they shall have been entered in such List as aforesaid, and not by the Parishes for which the Men so promoted shall have served.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Fine or Penalty of Twenty Pounds for not appearing to be enrolled and Fines under the said recited Act shall and may be paid for, protracted and recovered, and levied before a Justice of the Peace, or such and the like manner and by such and the like ways and means as any Fine or Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds may be paid and protracted for or levied and recovered under the Provisions of the said recited Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as directs the Reward for apprehending any Delinquent from the Local Militia to be paid out of the Commuted Fund of the Regiment to which the Delinquent shall have belonged, and as authorizes any Justice of the Peace to issue any Warrant for the Payment of such Reward out of such Fund, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and, from and after the passing of this Act, every such Reward of Twenty Shillings shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County to the Local Militia of which such Delinquent shall belong, out of any Money in his Hands arising from any County Rates.

Ratery; and such Payment shall be made upon the Warrant of any Justice of the Peace before whom any such Delinquent shall be brought, who shall issue his Warrant to the Treasurer of the County for that Purpose and as an Authority for such Payment.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who has served as a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer in His Majesty's Regular Forces, or in the Regular or Local Militia, shall be eligible to be enrolled and to serve as a Volunteer in the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place under the Provisions of the said second Act, although such Person may not be of the same County, Riding or Place, or of any adjoining Parish or Place as required by the said Act in relation to Volunteers; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no such Sergeant or Corporal shall be more than Forty five Years of Age, or have more than Four Children under Fourteen Years of Age: Provided also, that no such Drummer shall be rejected in consequence of being under Eighteen Years of Age or under the Height of Five Feet Two Inches: Provided also, that no such Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer shall be eligible as aforesaid, unless he shall produce to the Deputy Lieutenants before whom he is to be enrolled as such Volunteer as aforesaid, a Certificate from the Commandant of some Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia belonging to the County for which such Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer is to be enrolled as a Volunteer, stating that such Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer is qualified for the Situation in which he shall have to serve as aforesaid, and that it is his Intention to appoint him when enrolled to be a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, as the case may be, to the Regiment, Battalion or Corps under his Command, for the Purpose of aiding and assisting in the Training and Exercise thereof.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person ballotted to serve in the Local Militia, shall refuse to be assessed by a Surgeon as directed by the said recited Act, it shall be lawful for any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants assembled at any Subdivision Meeting, or any Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace so assembled, and they are hereby required to cause such Person to be enrolled as a Local Militia Man for the Parish or Place for which he was so ballotted to serve, any thing contained in any Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And whereas a certain Weekly Allowance is payable to the Wives or Families of Men serving in the Local Militia, in certain cases in the said Act and the other Acts relating to the Militia specified; but such Allowance is not payable in any rateable Proportion, for any Period less than one Week; and it is therefore expedient that the same should be made payable for any fractional Part of a Week: Be it therefore enacted, That the Allowance made to the Wives and Families of Men serving in the Local Militia shall be payable and paid in a rateable Proportion for the fractional Part of a Week, whenever the Period for which any Allowance shall be made under the said recited Act, on account of the attending of the Local Militia for any of the Purposes therein mentioned, shall make it requisite, in order to the giving such Allowance for the whole Period of the Men being so assembled as aforesaid.

Proviso.

His Majesty, in returning any such Book.

Local Militia at the time of passing the said Act, to be retained for so long a time during the Continuance of the present War, as His Majesty should think fit; and although Provision is intended to be made in the said recited Act, as to the Pay, Emoluments and Advantages to which such Officers, as well as Non-Commissioned Officers, and Corporals are to be entitled, yet on sufficient Provision is made for the Pay, Emoluments and Advantages to Officers so retained: Be it therefore enacted, That all such Officers so retained as aforesaid shall be entitled to such Pay, Emoluments and Advantages as other Officers are by Law entitled to.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Drummer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, whether on permanent Pay or otherwise, shall be allowed to quit the Army, Navy or Marines, or Regular Militia, or to engage himself as a Subaltern or Volunteer in the Regular Militia at any time, unless with the Consent in Writing of the Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, given for that Purpose.

VI. And whereas in cases where the Local Militia of any County or Stewartry shall have consisted of Two or more Regiments, Battalions or Corps, and One shall be reduced (as Consequence of the Reduction of the Quota of such Local Militia for such County or Stewartry under the said recited Act), a Power is given to His Majesty to order that any Number of Field Officers and Officers, together with the Adjutant and Quarter Master, who were serving at the time of passing the said recited Act, might be appointed to act in any other Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia with the said County or Stewartry, and should succeed to Vacancies which might occur in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps: Be it enacted, That all supernumerary Adjutants and Quarter Masters, whether retained under the said recited Provision, or in any other manner, shall succeed to any Vacancies which may occur in their respective Ranks, in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps within the same County or Stewartry, although they may not have been before appointed as aforesaid to act with such Regiment, Battalion or Corps.

VII. And whereas by the said recited Act, a Power is given to Persons landed in the Local Militia of Scotland, being desirous of removing from One County or Stewartry to another County or Stewartry, at any time during the Period of their Service, to do, under the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions therein contained; and it is reasonable that a like Power should be given to remove from Scotland to England, or vice versa: Be it therefore enacted, That to call, any Person entitled to serve as a Private in the Local Militia of any County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City or Place, in England or Scotland respectively, shall be desirous of removing from Scotland to England, or from England to Scotland, at any time or times during the Period of his Service, it shall be lawful for him to do so, upon giving such Notice, and pursuing all Directions, and in all respects under and subject to the same Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as are prescribed in the said recited Act, for Persons removing from one County or Stewartry in Scotland to another County or Stewartry in Scotland.

VIII. And whereas Mistakes sometimes unavoidably occur in the Christian Names of Persons returned as liable to serve in the Local Militia, and Doubts have arisen whether the Persons drawn out in such cases be made to serve, or any Penalties can be levied for the Neglect of the Provision of the said recited Act: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That no Return or List or Ballot shall be deemed irregular by reason of any Mistake in the Christian Name of the Person returned and ballotted, and all the Penalties of the said recited Act shall be enforced against the Person so returned and ballotted in like manner in every respect as if the Christian Name had been correctly returned: Provided that Notice of the Person being ballotted shall have been given to the Person so ballotted according to the Provision of the said recited Act: Provided always, that every Person so returned and ballotted under any wrong Christian Name as aforesaid shall be entitled to claim any Exemption to which he may be entitled after being so ballotted, and although the Days and Times of having Appeals shall have passed.

IX. And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Mode of appointing such Number of Men as may be ordered to be raised for the Local Militia among the several Wards and Parishes of each County, Stewartry or Place, in so far as relates to the Effective Yeomanry and Volunteers then actually serving: Be it therefore declared and enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in order to a due Apportionment thereof, the Number of Local Militia required to be raised in any County, Stewartry, Ward or other Division, shall be added to the Number of Effective Yeomanry or Volunteers actually serving for such County, Stewartry, Ward or other Division, and duly returned as such in the manner required by the several Acts of Parliament relating to Yeomanry and Volunteers, and the total Number of Local Militia and Volunteers shall be apportioned over the Wards or other Divisions and Parishes of each County or Stewartry, and the effective Yeomanry and Volunteers actually serving in any Ward, Division or Parish, shall then be taken in Part of the Quota apportioned upon each Ward, Division or Parish, so that the Number of Men to be raised by each Ward, Division or Parish, shall be no more exceed such Number as, in Addition to the Number of Effective Yeomanry and Volunteers actually serving, will amount to the Quota apportioned upon each Ward, Division or Parish: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to invalidate any Apportionment which may have been made under the Provision of the said recited Act; but every such Apportionment shall remain in full Force and Effect, and be acted upon as the proper Apportionment until the Deputy Lieutenants shall feel it to make any new Apportionment under the Provision of this Act.

X. And whereas various Delays often occur in the completing the Ballots for Men to serve in the Local Militia, and it is expedient that Power should be given to remit Fines in such cases where the Men have been actually certified before the Period finally fixed for the Training and Exercise of the Local Militia: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by order of the Secretary of State made for that Purpose, to remit any Fine or Fines or any Proportion of any Fine or Fines incurred by any County, Stewartry, Parish or Place, by reason of the said Number required not having been certified within the Periods specified specified in the said recited Act, is subject of all Men actually enrolled before the First Day of April; any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants at any General Meeting, and they are hereby required to assemble and fix by Ballot the Order in which the respective Subdivisions and Parishes in their respective Counties, Stewartries and Places shall stand, as in the supplying any Vacancy or vacancies that may arise or arise therein by reason of the Appointment of any Person serving in the Local Militia of any such County, Stewartry or Place to be a Dragoon, in the same manner as they may do where Vacancies arise by reason of the Appointment of Persons to be Sergeants and Corporals, and shall in like manner, immediately after the same shall be ascertained and fixed, cause such Subdivisions and Parishes respectively to be entered in such Order in a List to be prepared for that Purpose; and such Vacancies shall be supplied by such Subdivisions and Parishes, in the Order in which they shall have been entered in such Lists as aforesaid, and not by the Parishes for which the Men so promoted shall have served.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Fine or Penalty of Thirty Pounds for not appearing to be enrolled and sworn under the said recited Act, shall and may be sued for, prosecuted and recovered and levied before a Justice of the Peace, in each and the like manner, and by such and the like ways and means as any Fine or Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds may be sued and prosecuted for, or levied and recovered under the Provisions of the said recited Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who has served as a Sergeant, Corporal or Dragoon in His Majesty's Regular Forces, or in the Regular or Local Militia, shall be eligible to be enrolled, and to serve as a Volunteer in the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place under the Provisions of the said recited Act, although such Person may not be of the same County, Stewartry or Place, or of any adjoining Parish or Place, as required by the said Act, in relation to Volunteers; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no such Sergeant, Corporal or Dragoon shall be more than Forty five Years of Age, or have more than Four Children under Fourteen Years of Age: Provided also, that no such Dragoon shall be rejected in consequence of being under Eighteen Years of Age, or under the Height of Five Feet Two Inches: Provided also, that no such Sergeant, Corporal or Dragoon shall be eligible as aforesaid, unless he shall produce to the Deputy Lieutenants, before whom he is to be enrolled as such Volunteer as aforesaid, a Certificate from the Commandant of some Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia belonging to the County, Stewartry or Place for which such Sergeant, Corporal or Dragoon is to be enrolled as a Volunteer, stating that such Sergeant, Corporal or Dragoon is qualified for the Situation in which he shall have to serve as aforesaid, and that it is his Licence to appoint him when enrolled to be a Sergeant, Corporal or Dragoon, as the case may be, to the Regiment, Battalion or Corps under his Command, for the Purpose of aiding and assisting in the Training and Exercise thereof.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenant of every County, Stewartry or Place, shall have the Chief Command of the Local Militia, within the County, Stewartry or Place to which he is appointed.

XV. And be it further enacted, That where the Local Militia of Two or more Counties or Stewartries shall be joined together in order to form a Battalion, which shall be entitled only to one Lieutenant Colonel Commandant, and one Major, in every such case the Lieutenant Colonel Commandant shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry or Place furnishing the greatest Number of Private Men, and the Major shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry or Place furnishing the next greatest Number, provided such Number shall be sufficient to form a Company.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Deficiency of Qualifications of Officers to be appointed in the Local Militia, which by the said recited Act are directed to be delivered in to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Stewartry or Place for which they are to be appointed, shall no longer be delivered in to such Clerk of the Peace, but shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be delivered in to the Clerk of Supply of such County, Stewartry or Place, or (in the Absence of the Clerk of Supply) to his Deputy; and such Clerk of Supply, or his Deputy, shall transmit to the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry or Place, a Copy of such Deficiency, and shall enter the Qualifications transmitted to him upon a Roll to be provided for that Purpose; and shall cause to be referred to the Lordes of the Council the Names of the Commandants, and the Names and Rank of the Officers, together with the Names of the Officers to whose names they are appointed; and shall transmit to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, a Certificate in the Form in Schedule (A) annexed to the said recited Act, that the Qualifications have been so left with him; and which things shall be done by the Clerk of Supply in the manner in which the Clerk of the Peace is directed to do the same by the said recited Act, and the Clerk of Supply shall be subject to the same Penalties in case of Nonperformance.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for all Justices of the Peace and Magistrates of Cities, Towns and Hamlets, and they and each of them are and is respectively hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Dragoons and Private Men serving in the Local Militia, at the times when they shall be called out to attend Exercise, in the same way and manner as His Majesty's Regular Forces are so furnished and provided in Scotland, upon Application made to any such Justices of the Peace or Magistrates by His Majesty's Lieutenant, or by the Colonel or other Commanding Officer of the Regiment or Battalion of Local Militia so called out to attend Exercise as aforesaid, or of any Division or Detachment thereof; and when the Local Militia is not embodied nor called out to Exercise as aforesaid, all Justices of the Peace and Magistrates aforesaid may, and they and each of them are and is hereby respectively required, to order and provide convenient Quarters in such manner as aforesaid for the Sergeants, Corporals and Dragoons of the Local Militia on permanent Pay.

C. A. P. XXXV.

An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in His present Majesty's Reign, relating to the Redemption of the National Debt; and for making further Provision in respect thereof.

[15th April 1813.]

WHEREAS the Total Capital of the Funded Debt of Great Britain is perpetual redeemable Annuities, calling on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, amounted to the Sum of Two hundred thirty eight millions two hundred thirty one thousand two hundred forty eight Pounds Five Shillings and Two pence Three Farthings; And whereas by several Acts passed in the Reign of His present Majesty; and, as Acts passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His Majesty, intitled An Act for vesting certain Sums in Commissioners; at the End of every Quarter of a Year, to be by them applied in the Redemption of the National Debt; an Act passed in the Twenty seventh Year of His Majesty, intitled An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof; and for applying the said Duties together with the other Duties comprising the Public Revenue; for providing the Impostments of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandises, the Products or Manufactures of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Amounts, remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Loans, to the Reduction of the National Debt; an Act passed in the Twenty second Year of His Majesty, intitled *An Act to render more effectual an Act made in the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for vesting certain Sums in Commissioners at the End of every Quarter of a Year, to be by them applied in the Redemption of the National Debt; and to direct the Application of an additional Sum in the Redemption of the said Debt in case of future Loans;* and an Act passed in the Forty second Year of His Majesty, intitled An Act to amend and render more effectual Two Acts passed in the Twenty sixth and Thirtieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the Reduction of the National Debt; various Provisions were made for the gradual Reduction of the said Debt calling on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, and of the Public Debt then constituted; And whereas by virtue of the said several Acts, the Sum of Two hundred thirty eight millions three hundred and fifty thousand one hundred forty three Pounds Eighteen Shillings and One Penny of Funded Capital of the said Debt had, on or before the Fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, been actually purchased by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or had been transferred to the said Commissioners for the Redemption of said Debt, or the Purchase of Life Annuities; and which said Sum to parcel led, or transferred to the said Commissioners, as aforesaid, exceeds the Total Capital of the perpetual redeemable Annuities of the Funded Debt of Great Britain, calling on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, by the Sum of One hundred and eighty thousand eight hundred ninety five Pounds Twelve Shillings and Two pence Farthings; And whereas the Public Bureaux say at this Period be greatly augmented, and the whole of the National Debt now existing may nevertheless be redeemed within Forty five Years from the Period of their respective Loans by which the same was created; and the Reduction thereof may be accelerated, if the Provisions of the said several Acts were altered, varied and amended, in the manner hereinafter expressed; Be it therefore enacted and declared by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, for the Purposes of this Act, an Annuity of Public Debt equal to the whole Capital of the Public Debt is perpetual redeemable Annuities, calling on the said Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, shall be deemed to be issued and discharged; and so much of the Capital Stock be purchased and transferred as aforesaid, and standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as Parliament, by an Act or Acts to be passed in the present Session, shall or may direct, shall be cancelled, in like manner

Provided nevertheless, that out of any Capital Stock to be cancelled as aforesaid, shall always be reserved such Sum or Sums as shall produce a yearly Interest or Dividend adequate to make Provision for the Payment of all Life Annuities which may then be payable out of the Sinking Fund of Great Britain, in and to the fullest Redemption of Stock which at any time theretofore have been made for that Purpose.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case and whenever any such Capital Stock which may have been declared to be satisfied and discharged as aforesaid, or any Part of such Capital Stock, shall not be actually cancelled in virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament to be passed for that Purpose, then and in every such case the Dividends of all such Capital Stock as may not have been cancelled, shall in the mean time and until the time shall be so actually cancelled, continue to be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer, and be placed to the Account of the said Commissioners for the Redemption of the National Debt, at the Bank of England, and shall be applied by them in the Redemption of the National Debt, in such and the same manner as in all respects as the Dividends of any other Capital Stock standing in their Names are applicable for that Purpose.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That any such Capital Stock as aforesaid shall never be deemed to be satisfied or discharged, or be cancelled by Parliament, in such a manner or in any such Extent, as might not leave in the Hands of the said Commissioners a Sum sufficient, together with the other Funds or Sums of Money appropriated to them, to redeem or purchase an Amount of redeemable Public Annuities, equal to such Part of the whole of the redeemable Annuities of the Public Debt of Great Britain, as existed previous to the Twenty second Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, within Forty five Years from the said Twenty second Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two; nor to redeem or purchase as Amount of redeemable Public Annuities, equal to such Part thereof as hath been or shall be created subsequent to the said Twenty second Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, within Forty five Years from the respective Periods of the Creation of such redeemable Public Annuities respectively.

IV. And, in order to make more effectual Provision for the Redemption of the Public Debt within the Period of Forty five Years from the time of its Creation, conformably to the Intent and Meaning of the said recited Acts and of this Act, be it further enacted, That all and every the quarterly Sum and Sums which, by virtue of the said recited Acts of the Twenty sixth, Twenty seventh, Twenty eighth, and Forty second Years of His present Majesty's Reign, or any of them, and directed to be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or account of the Commissioners for the Redemption of the National Debt, shall from time to time continue to be so issued, and shall be applied by the said Commissioners pursuant to the Directions, and under and according to the Regulations and Provisions of the said recited Acts, either in Payment for the Redemption, or in the Purchase of the several redeemable Public Annuities of Great Britain, until the whole of the perpetual redeemable Annuities, now, or which during the present War may hereafter become charged upon the Public Funds of Great Britain, shall have been completely redeemed, or purchased within Forty five Years from the Creation thereof as aforesaid; any thing in the said recited Acts of the Twenty sixth and Twenty second Years of His said Majesty's Reign, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

V. And

V. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Amount of the Sum to be raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner, which may create an Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, in the present or any future Year, shall exceed the Sum which on the Fifth Day of February shall have been or shall be estimated to be applicable in the first Year to the Reduction of the National Debt, then and in every such case an annual Sum, amounting to One hundredth Part of the Capital Stock created by so much only of the Monies raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner as aforesaid, in the Year, as shall be equal to the Sum is estimated to be applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt, within the first Year, shall be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the Account of the said Commissioners, in the manner directed by the said recited Act of the Thirty second Year of His present Majesty; and with respect to the Excess of the Monies which may be so raised in any Year by way of Loan, or in any other manner as aforesaid, above the estimated Sum applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt, within the same Year, such an annual Sum as shall be equal to One half of the Interest of such Excess, shall be set apart out of the Monies composing the Consolidated Fund, and shall in like manner be issued, at the said Receipt of the Exchequer, to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them placed to the Account of the said Commissioners.

VI. And whereas Provision was made by Parliament, in the Forty second Year of His present Majesty's Beign, for paying out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, the Interest and Charges of the Capital Stock created in respect of several Loans, raised by virtue of divers Acts passed in the Thirty eighth, Thirty ninth, Forty sixth and Fortieth and Forty second Years of His said Majesty, amounting to the Sum of Eighty six millions seven hundred and twenty five thousand three hundred Pounds, but as Provision was also made for the Issue of an annual Sum equal to One hundredth Part of the said Capital Stock, for the Redemption thereof: And whereas it is expedient now to make Provision for that Purpose: Be it therefore enacted, That in Addition to any Sum which by virtue of the said recited Acts and of this Act, shall be set apart out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, for the Redemption of the National Debt, the further annual Sum of Eight hundred and fifty five thousand one hundred and fifty three Pounds shall from time to time be set apart and issued, at the Receipt of the Exchequer, out of the said Consolidated Fund by equal Quarterly Payments, to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them placed to the Account of the said Commissioners; the first of the said Quarterly Payments to be issued on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, for the Reduction of the National Debt shall from time to time apply all such respective annual Sums as shall by virtue of this Act be issued or granted, and be placed to their Account in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and also the Dividends payable on any Stock redeemed or purchased thereunto, in the Redemption or Purchase of any such redeemable Public Annuities, as they may from time to time judge most expedient, in such and the like manner as by virtue of the said recited Acts and this Act any other Sums issued to them, or placed to their Account for the Redemption of the National Debt, are applicable; and all and every the Powers and Authorities, Regulations and Provisions contained in any such Acts, respecting the Application of Monies issued or placed to the Account of the said Commissioners, shall be valid and effectual, with respect to the Monies issued to them, or placed to their Account, by virtue of this Act (so far as in so far as the same are applicable, and except where the same are herein expressly varied), as fully as if the same were particularly recited therein.

Order of 1 and Lieutenant.

Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Paymaster to the said Militia to hold the Commission of a Subaltern Officer in the said Militia together with the Commission of Paymaster, and that any Officer holding the Commission of a Subaltern Officer in the said Militia shall be capable of being appointed Paymaster thereon; any thing in the said recited Act or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And whereas by the said recited Act it is also, amongst other things, provided, that if it shall happen in any case that the Number of Militia Men duly appointed, or to be appointed to be raised for any Regiment or Battalion of the Militia of Ireland, shall not be raised within Three Calendar Months from and after the time when the same ought to be raised by Ballot, or within Four Months from the Date of the Order for raising the same by recruiting Volunteers, then and in every such case the County or County of a City or Town, in which such Number of Militia Men ought to be raised, shall be charged with the Payment of the yearly sum of Ten Pounds, for and in lieu of every Yearly Militia Men deficiency; and upon Petition on Oath first filed by any Governor or Deputy Governor of each Deficiency before the Judge of Assize, or in the County or City of Dublin, before the Court of King's Bench, it shall be lawful for each Judge of Assize and each Court, and they are thereby respectively required, to fine the County or County of a City or Town, or each District, Barony or Barony, or Parish or Parishes thereof, in which such Neglect shall happen, in a Sum after the Rate of Ten Pounds for every Private Man in default, and to repay the same Yearly sum usually so long as the said Deficiency shall continue; which Fine or Fines shall be allowed into His Majesty's Exchequer, and shall in the Process, and shall be duly levied by the Sheriff or other Officers respectively, to whom such Process shall be directed respectively; and it shall not be lawful for the Barons of the Exchequer, or Commissioners of Redemption, or any account, to take off, release or reduce such Fine or Fines, or any Parts thereof; And whereas the said Mode of raising the Amount of the said Fines is inconvenient: Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as relates to the charging of such Fines, and raising of such Process, and keeping the same, shall, as to all such Fines to be imposed after the passing of this Act, stand and be repealed; and that, from and after the passing of this Act, all Fines so to be imposed shall be levied by and under the Warrant of the Treasurer of the County, in the same manner in all respects as County Preferences are or shall from time to time be levied in Ireland, and every such Treasurer is hereby authorized and required to issue such Warrant for the same accordingly: Provided always nevertheless, that such Fines when to be levied shall be paid and disposed of in all respects in manner by the said recited Act directed.

III. And whereas Debts may be entertained as to the Arrears of the Bounty payable in census infra on raising Volunteers for the Militia in Ireland, and by whom and in what Proportions such Bounty ought by Law to be paid: Be it therefore declared and enacted, That in all cases where any Man or Men shall be raised in Ireland for the Militia, by volunteering, whether at the forming of any Regiment or supplementing the same, or for supplying any Vacancies in any Regiment, whether augmented or not, the Bounty for every such Volunteer shall be such Sum not exceeding the average Price of a Soldier, to be ascertained respectively in manner in the said Act of the Forty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign directed, as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall from time to time direct, and such Sums shall be advanced and paid respectively in manner here following; that is to say, the Bounty as the original Augmentation of any Regiment shall be paid altogether out of His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland; the Bounty on volunteering to supply Vacancies in augmented Regiments shall be advanced out of the said Treasury, and Seven Tenths thereof be repaid by the respective Counties, and the Residue shall be charged to the Consolidated Fund; in all other cases, the whole Bounty shall be advanced out of the said Treasury, and repaid by the respective Counties; all which Sums are to be over and above and distinct from the Marching Bounties, and the further Sums to be advanced for procuring and sending such Volunteers as in the said Act of the Forty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign is directed: Provided always, that when the Militia Men in any augmented Regiment shall have been appointed as recruits directed by the said last recited Act, and the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being shall direct, that the original Establishment of such Regiment shall be filled up by Ballot, then the County for filling up the augmented Number shall be paid altogether out of His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland.

IV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Fines of Ten Pounds usually to be imposed on the respective Counties for Men remaining deficient as aforesaid, shall not extend, nor be confined to extend to, nor be imposed for any Delinquency in volunteering for the original Augmentation of any Regiment, nor for the supplying of any Vacancies in the augmented Number of any Regiment where the original Quota of such Regiment shall have been or shall be ascertained among the several Parishes and Districts in manner directed by the said recited Act of the Forty-ninth Year aforesaid; and the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall direct that the Vacancies in such original Establishment shall be supplied by Ballot, but shall extend and be confined to extend to Delinquencies in raising Men by volunteering for or upon any other of the Paragraphs or Sections aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Colonels or Commanding Officers of Militia to pay or apply the Bounty of each Volunteer, or to divide the same to be paid or applied to the Use of every such Volunteer, at such Times and Places, and in such Proportions, as to any Advance of any Part thereof, and in such manner, and order and subject to such Regulations and Restrictions, as the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, shall, by any Order of his or their Chief Secretary, by any Regulations from time to time made in that behalf, be pleased to order or direct.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, whenever he or they shall think proper so to do, so order that any augmented Regiment or Regiments of the said Militia, raised or to be raised in Ireland, shall be reduced to its original Establishment; and thereupon such Regiment shall, to all Intents and Purposes, be and remain as if the same had never been augmented, unless and until the same shall be again augmented according to Law; and from the Date of such Order, all and every Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer and Private in any such Regiment, over and above the original Establishment thereof, shall be Superannuated, and shall proceed, according to their Order and respective Ranks, to the first Vacancies that shall occur in such Regiments respectively.

Lord Lieutenant may so order to reduce augmented Regiments.

XII And be it enacted, That in the Event of the Death or Resignation or Removal into the Inner House of any of the said Four Permanent Ordinaries, it shall be competent to the whole Court or Quorum thereof, in like manner to elect the Proxies then depending before such Permanent Ordinary in Case of the said Four Permanent Ordinaries belonging to the same Division, and that without any Petition or Motion for that Purpose.

XIII And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act concerning the Administration of Justice in Scotland, and concerning Appeals to the House of Lords, it is enacted, That in case there should be an Equality of Votes in either Division, the Cause or Matter should remain for subsequent Discussion and Decision; and in case, upon such subsequent Discussion and Decision there should be again an Equality of Votes, the Judges of the said Division should call in One of the Lords Ordinary of the same Division from the Outer House, in the Order of their Seniority, as Judges to be present at the Discussion, and to vote in such case: Be it enacted, That in such last mentioned case, the Judges of the said First Division shall call in One of the said Three senior Ordinary Judges in Rotation, beginning with the senior of the said Three Judges; and the Judges of the said second Division shall call in One of the said Two junior Ordinary Judges in Rotation, beginning with the senior of the said Two Ordinary Judges, to be present at the Discussion, and to vote in such case.

XIV And whereas it may happen that by reason of Death, Resignation, Sicknes, Declinature or unaccountable Absence, the Number of either Division may be reduced to less than a Quorum of Three: Be it enacted, That in any such case it shall be competent for each Division to call in One or more of the Permanent Ordinaries of such Division in Rotation, beginning with the senior; which Ordinary or Ordinaries, so called in, shall vote in such case, as if he or they were Members of the Inner House of such Division.

XV And whereas it is by the said last recited Act enacted, That it should be competent to the Judges of either Division, or the Quorum thereof, in any cases which should appear to them to be cases of Importance and Difficulty, to raise Questions of Law in Writing on such cases, and to require the Opinions of the Judges of the other Division to be given thereupon, and that such Judges should be bound to communicate their Opinion thereupon, either as a collective Body or as individual Judges: And whereas it is expedient in such cases, that the Opinions of the said Three junior Ordinary Judges of the First Division, and of the said Two junior Ordinary Judges of the Second Division, should also be required: Be it therefore enacted, That in all cases where Questions of Law shall be so raised in Writing, it shall be competent to the Judges of either Division, or the Quorum thereof, to require the Opinions of the said Five Permanent Ordinaries as well as the Opinions of the Judges of the Inner House of the other Division; and the said Five Permanent Ordinaries, and the Judges of the Inner House of the other Division, shall be bound to communicate their Opinions thereupon.

XVI And whereas by the said last recited Act it is enacted, That in each of the said Divisions there should be an equal Number of the Judges of the Court of Judicature, including the Lord Justice Clerk: And whereas, by reason of the Regulations prescribed by this Act, the circumstances in which such Provision was applicable, no longer exist: Be it therefore enacted, That the said Provision shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XVII And whereas a very great Number of Bills, commonly called Plack Bills, are daily presented at the Bill Chamber, which Bills, after being endorsed by the Clerk of the Bills, in Token of their being properly worded by the requisite Decree are presented to him for Examination, do now require the Subscription of the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, whereby much Trouble and waste of time is occasioned both to the Judges and Agents: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Endorsement of the Clerk of the Bills officiating for the time, on each Bill usually called Plack Bills, shall be sufficient without the Subscription of the Lord Ordinary; except in cases where a Doubt or Difficulty shall occur on the Clerk of the Bills, which he shall report to the Lord Ordinary, whose Subscription shall then be necessary.

XVIII And be it enacted, That the said last recited Act passed in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty, and the said last recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty, excepting in so far as the same are altered or repealed by this Act, shall remain in force, and receive Effect, in fact and the same manner as if this Act had not been made.

shall at any time thereafter be enabled to pay such Debts and Demands, or to pay such Part or Parts thereof as he or she shall be able at any time to pay; and shall also order all Books, Papers and Writings, in the Custody or Power of such Prisoner, relating to the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, and the Demands of his or her Creditors, to be delivered on Oath to such Ali-gness or Ali-gnesses, or otherwise to be disposed of as such Court shall direct; and upon the due Execution of all such Concessions, Ali-gnesses and Engagements as aforesaid, and Delivery of such Books, Papers and Writings as aforesaid, as such Court shall direct, such Court shall order such Prisoner to be discharged from Custody, and Judgment at shall thereupon be entered in such Court against such Prisoner in pursuance of such Engagements as aforesaid, which Judgment shall stand as if, if the said Court shall be ordered, he executed against the future Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, Real and Personal, as the said Court shall direct, and shall bind the Assets of such Prisoner, Real and Personal, in the Hands of his Heirs, Executors and Administrators, for the full Amount of the Debts and Demands aforesaid, which shall remain unsatisfied; or so much of such Debts and Demands as the said Court shall be of Opinion ought to be satisfied, and Execution shall be had upon such Judgment in such and the same manner as Execution may be had upon a Judgment of the Court of King's Bench notwithstanding, according to the Orders of the Court to be established by virtue of this Act, and in conformity to the Provisions in this Act contained.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Prisoner who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, shall be entitled to any Copypold or Cafuatory Estate, the same shall be surrendered or conveyed by such Prisoner according to the Custom of the Manor of which such Estate shall be held, either to the Ali-gness or Ali-gnesses of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, or to any Purchaser or Purchasers of any such Copypold or Cafuatory Estate from such Ali-gness or Ali-gnesses, as the said Court shall direct, and the Rents and Profits thereof shall be in the same time received by such Ali-gness or Ali-gnesses for the Benefit of the Creditors of such Prisoner, without Pay-justice-otherwise to the Lord or Lords of the Manor of which any such Copypold or Cafuatory Estate shall be held.

XII. And whereas Prisoners discharged by virtue of this Act may be entitled to Annuities for their own Lives, or other uncertain Interests, or to reversionary or contingent Interests, or to Property under such Circumstances, that the immediate Sale thereof for Payment of their Debts may be very prejudicial to them, and deplete them of the Means of Subsistence which they might otherwise have after Payment of these Debts; and it may be proper in some cases to authorize the raising of Money by way of Mortgage for Payment of the Debts, or Part of the Debts of a Prisoner discharged by virtue of this Act, and defraying Expenses attending the Execution of this Act, instead of selling the Property of such Prisoner for such Purposes; Be it enacted, That in all such cases, it shall be lawful for the said Court to take into Consideration all circumstances affecting the Property of any Prisoner who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, either at the time of the Discharge of such Prisoner, or at any subsequent time; and if it shall appear to the said Court, that it would be reasonable to make any Special Order touching the same, it shall be lawful for the said Court so to do, and to direct that such Property as it may be expedient not to sell, or not to sell immediately, according to the Provisions of this Act, shall not be so sold, and from time to time to order and direct in what manner such Property shall be mortgaged for the Benefit of the Creditors of such Prisoner, until the same can be properly sold, or until Payment of all such Creditors according to the Provisions of this Act, and to make such Order touching the Sale or Disposition of such Property as to the said Court shall seem reasonable, considering the Rights of the Creditors of such Prisoner to Payment of their Demands, and the future Benefits of such Prisoner after Payment of his or her Debts, and upon such Terms and Conditions with respect to the Allowance of Interest or Debts not bearing Interest, or other circumstances, as to the said Court shall seem just; and if it shall appear to the said Court that the Debts of such Prisoner can be discharged by means of Money raised by way of Mortgage on any Property of such Prisoner, instead of raising the same by Sale, it shall be lawful for the said Court so to order, and to give all necessary Directions for such Purpose, and generally to direct all things which may be proper for the Discharge of the Debts of such Prisoner in such manner as may be most consistent with the Interests of such Prisoner, in any Surplus of his or her Effects after Payment of such Debts.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Creditor against whom any Prisoner shall have obtained his or her Discharge by virtue of this Act, shall within One Year after the Date of the Order for such Discharge, apply to the said Court to avoid such Discharge as improperly obtained, and upon such Application it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Court that such Prisoner has acted in any manner fraudulently in obtaining such Discharge, or has wilfully concealed any of his or her Estate or Effects by not specifying or not properly specifying the same in such Schedule as aforesaid, for the Purpose of depriving the Creditors against whom he shall have obtained such Discharge of the Benefit thereof, it shall be lawful for such Court to declare the Discharge be obtained by such Prisoner null and void; and it shall thereupon be lawful for any Creditor or Creditors of such Prisoner against whom such Discharge shall have been obtained, to proceed against such Prisoner as if such Discharge had not been obtained, such Creditor or Creditors relinquishing all Benefit of the Assignment of the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner which shall remain unpaid by the Ali-gness or Ali-gnesses appointed under this Act; and any of such Creditors who shall have detained such Prisoner in Custody at the time of such Discharge shall be at Liberty to apply to such Court to remove such Prisoner again into Custody on the same Process as before which he or she had been so discharged; and such Court shall have Power to remove such Prisoner accordingly, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Commissioner of the said Court, which Warrant shall be executed by an Officer of the said Court to be appointed for such Purpose, and shall be sufficient Authority for the Arrest and Detention of such Prisoner, upon the Process from which such Prisoner was before discharged; and so much (if any) of the Estate or Effects of such such Prisoner as shall then remain in the Hands of the Assignee or Assignees thereof, after paying all the just Charges and Expenses of such Assignee or Assignees to be allowed by the said Court, shall be recovered or assigned or paid to such Prisoner as the said Court shall direct; but so much of such Estates and Effects as shall have been before applied in Payment of the Debts of such Prisoner, shall be retained by the Creditors who shall have received the same in Part of their respective Demands, excepting only the Creditors or Creditors who shall apply to the Court to avoid such Discharge, who shall enjoy the Dividend or Dividends received by him, her or them respectively, to the Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, before such Order, declaring such Discharge null and void, shall be delivered out by the said Court.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Prisoner who shall have been discharged by virtue of this Act, shall become able to pay all or any Part of the Debts due from him or her, and again which he or she shall have obtained such Discharge, after a reasonable Allowance for the Maintenance of such Debtor, and his or her Family, and Payment of his or her Debts, contracted after such Discharge, or to which such Discharge did not extend, it shall and may be lawful for any Creditor or Creditors against whom he or she shall have obtained such Discharge, to apply to the Court for Liberty to proceed against such Debtor, notwithstanding such Discharge; and in case it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Court, that such Debtor is of Ability to pay such Demand, or any Part thereof, it shall be lawful for such Court to revoke such Discharge either wholly or upon Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money for the Benefit of the Person against whom such Discharge shall have been obtained, either in gross, or by several Payments, as to such Court shall appear reasonable, or to permit Execution to be taken out on the Judgment entered up in such Court upon the Engagement of such Prisoner, for such Sum of Money as the said Court shall think fit, to be distributed ratably amongst the Creditors entitled under such Engagement, and such Proceedings shall and may be had according to the Direction of the said Court from time to time, until the whole of the Debts due to the several Persons against whom such Discharge shall have been obtained, shall be fully paid and satisfied, together with such Costs as such Court shall think fit to award: Provided always, that in case any such Application shall appear to the Court to be ill founded and vexatious, it shall be lawful for the Court not only to refuse to make any Order on such Application, but also to direct the issue, with such Costs as to the Court shall appear reasonable.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person who shall, at any time after the Expiration of Six Calendar Months from the Date of the Appointment of any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of any Prisoner under the Authority of this Act, voluntarily come and make Discovery of any Part of such Prisoner's Estate not specified in the said Schedule, and not before come to the Knowledge of the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner's Estate, either to the said Assignee or Assignees or to the Commissioner of the said Court, shall be allowed Five Pounds per Centum, and such further and other Reward as the said Assignee or Assignees, or the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Prisoner present at any Meeting of the said Creditors, shall think fit, to be paid out of the net Proceeds of such Prisoner's Estate which shall be recovered on such Discovery, which shall be paid to the Person or Persons so discovering the same by the said Assignee or Assignees, who shall be allowed the same as his, her or their Account.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person who hath or have accepted or shall accept any Trust or Trusts, or shall be possessed of and willfully conceal or protect any Estate Real or Personal, of any Prisoner who shall be discharged under the Authority of this Act, and knowing such Discharge, shall not, within the Space of Six Calendar Months after such Discharge, disclose such Trust and Estate in Writing, either to the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner's Estate, or to the Commissioner of the said Court, and submit himself, herself and themselves to be examined touching the same on Oath before such Commissioner, or before such Person being a Justice of the Peace as he shall appoint, if thereunto required, and truly discover and disclose the same and all Particulars thereof, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, and Double the Value of the Estate whether Real or Personal so concealed, to and for the Use of the Creditors of such Prisoner, to be recovered by Action of Debt in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in the Name of the Assignee or Assignees of such Prisoner, or of any One of his, her or their Creditors who shall first sue for the same, both full Costs of Suit.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Prisoner who shall have been discharged by virtue of this Act, shall be leaving Effects Real or Personal, after Payment of all his or her Debts, exclusive of the Debts from which such Prisoner shall have obtained such Discharge, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons entitled to so much of such Debt or Debts, from which such Discharge shall have been obtained as shall appear upon, to apply to the said Court for Liberty to proceed on the Judgment entered in the said Court on the Engagement of such Prisoner, in order to obtain Payment of so much of such Debt or Debts as shall then remain due as aforesaid, and such Court shall make such Order thereupon as shall be just; and the Heirs, Executors or Administrators of such deceased Prisoner shall apply the Assets in his, her or their Hands according to such Order, but without Prejudice to the Demand of any other Creditor or Creditors of such deceased Prisoner, all of which shall be first paid or satisfied: Provided always, that in case it shall at any time be made appear to such Court, that the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner, conveyed or assigned under the Authority of this Act, would have been sufficient, if equally and properly managed, to have satisfied all the Debts from which such Prisoner had been discharged, he or she having satisfied a larger Proportion of such Debts than they had actually been paid therewith, then and in any such case such Court shall not entertain any further Proceedings against such Prisoner, or his or her Assets, except for so much of the Debts of such Prisoner as could not have been satisfied out of the Estate and Effects so conveyed and assigned in case the same had been carefully and properly managed and rendered productive for the Discharge of such Debts: Provided also, that in no case Interest shall be allowed on any such Debt from the time of such Discharge.

IV. And whereas by the said intituled Act Provision was not made for allowing a Drawback of the said new and additional Duties of Customs on Carrot Tobacco exported from Great Britain: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be paid and allowed on the due Exportation from Great Britain of all such Carrot Tobacco, a Drawback in respect of the said new and additional Duties of Customs imposed by the said intituled Act, of Nine Shillings and Seven pence Halfpenny for every One hundred Weight of Carrot Tobacco exported; and that such Drawback of the said Duties shall be paid and allowed in such and the like manner, and under all the Rules, Regulations and Restrictions as the former Drawbacks on Carrot Tobacco were paid and allowed by virtue and in pursuance of any Act or Acts in force relating to Drawbacks on such Tobacco; and all the Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures applicable thereto by any such Acts shall be extended to the Purposes of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof.

V. And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and by the said intituled Act of the present Session of Parliament, certain Duties of Customs are now payable upon Peas imported into Great Britain by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; and it is expedient that the said Duties, here and except the Duties payable on their being stored in Warehouses, pursuant to an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for permitting certain Goods imported from the East Indies to be warehoused, and for regulating the Duties now payable thereon, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, should be no longer payable or paid; and that another Duty of Customs should be charged instead, and in lieu thereof: Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the said several Duties now payable upon Peas so imported, here and except the said Duties payable as then being stored in Warehouses as aforesaid, shall cease, and be no longer payable or paid, and instead and in lieu thereof, there shall be charged and paid on such Peas when taken out of any such Warehouses to be used or consumed in Great Britain, a Permanent Duty of Five Pounds only to every One hundred Pounds of the Value thereof; and the said Duty shall be managed, accounted, raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid and applied in like manner as the Permanent Duty heretofore payable was to be managed, accounted, raised, levied, collected, recovered and applied, and shall be subject to the General Powers, Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures now in force, in relation to, or made for securing the Revenue of Customs in Great Britain.

VI. And whereas it is expedient that the additional Duty of Customs on Berils imported into Great Britain, granted by the last Act of the Session of Parliament, should be repealed: Be it therefore enacted, That,

Then, from and after the passing of this Act, the additional Duty of Customs granted by the said Act as to Biscuits imported into Great Britain, shall cease and determine.

been imposed since the passing of an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, should also be in like manner drawn back: Be it therefore enacted, That there shall be paid and allowed additional Drawbacks of Part of the Duties of Customs granted by the said recited Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, in the Proportion before mentioned, as the same are particularly described and set forth in Figures in the Table hereto annexed, marked (A.) on any Deals above Seven Inches in Width, being Eight Feet in Length and not above Ten Feet in Length, and not exceeding One Inch and as Half in Thickness; and on any Fir Timber of the Growth of Norway, and imported directly from whence, being Eight Inches Square, and not exceeding Two Inches Square, which shall have been or shall be used and employed in the Tin, Lead or Copper Mines in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall: Provided always, that before the Payment of the said additional Drawbacks Proof shall be made before the Collector of the Customs of the Port where the Duties upon such Deals and Timber shall have been paid to have been paid, that the said Duties of Customs imposed by the said recited Act passed in the present Session of Parliament on all such Deals and Timber so used and employed as aforesaid, and on which the Drawbacks allowed by this Act shall be claimed, were duly paid thereon: Provided also, that the additional Drawbacks hereby granted shall be paid and allowed on the same Conditions, and shall be subject in every respect to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Securities and Penalties as the Drawback on Deals and Fir Timber used and employed as aforesaid, granted by an Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for allowing the Time at which the additional Duties of Customs imposed by an Act of the first Session of Parliament on certain Species of Wood were to have taken place; and for granting a Drawback upon Deals and Timber used in the Mines of Tin, Copper and Lead, in the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, in paid and allowed.

51 G. 3. c. 45

* VIII. And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Period at which a Claim to Bounty on Printed Calicoes and other Goods exported has been and is by Law vested in the Parties exporting the same: Be it further enacted and declared, That such Claim shall be deemed to attach as soon as any Goods on which Bounty now is payable shall be shipped on board the Vessel on which such Goods shall be laden for Exportation, and shall be afterwards duly exported; and no Claim for Bounty on Printed Calicoes shall be or be deemed or construed to be valid and effectual in Law, unless such Printed Calicoes were actually shipped on board some Vessel or Vessels for Exportation on or before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and were afterwards actually exported in the first Vessel or Vessels.

Claim to Bounty on Calicoes, &c. allowed.

* IX. And whereas the Provisions already made by Law to prevent the clandestine Exportation of Goods, Wares or Merchandise which are prohibited to be exported, have not been sufficient to put a stop to such fraudulent Practices: Be it therefore enacted, That if any Goods, Wares or Merchandise which are or may be prohibited to be exported, shall be laden or shipped or put on board any Vessel or Boat with the Intent to be laden or shipped for its portmance, or shall be brought to any Quay, Wharf or other Place in Great Britain, in order to be laden or put on board any Ship, Vessel or Boat for the Purpose of being exported; or if any Goods, Wares or Merchandise which are prohibited to be exported shall be found in any Package produced to the Officers of the Customs as containing Goods not so prohibited, then in such and every such case not only all such Prohibited Goods, but also all other Goods, Wares and Merchandise packed therewith, shall be for- feited and lost, and shall and may be seized by any Officers or Officers of the Customs.

Report made by the Commissioners of Escheat appointed under an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to revive and amend an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, for making the Lord Lieutenant to appoint Commissioners for enquiring into the several Funds and Revenues granted for the Purposes of Education, and into the State and Condition of all Schools in Ireland, that great XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, by and with the Advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, to appoint what Provision, Stipend or Salary, shall be paid to the Schoolmaster of every Diocese or District School, and what Portion and Portions of such Salary shall be raised and paid in each and every Diocese of any such District where such District School shall be established: One Third Part of all which Sum or Sums of Money shall be levied on and paid by the said Bishops in their respective Dioceses, and the remaining Two Third Parts of such Sums and Sums of Money shall be levied on and paid by the said Parishes, Vicars, Prebendaries and other Ecclesiastical Persons, by an equal Contribution according to the Values of their respective Tenements, to be from time to time ascertained by the Bishop of every Diocese, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Archbishop of the Province in which such Diocese shall be situate.

C A P. CVIII.

An Act for altering, explaining and amending an Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, for granting Stamp Duties in Great Britain, with regard to the Duties on Re-issuable Promissory Notes, and on Conveyances on the Sale and Mortgage of Property, for better enabling the Commissioners of Stamps to give Relief in Cases of Spoiled Stamps, and to remit Penalties, for exempting certain Instruments from Stamp Duty; and for better securing the Duties on Stage Coaches.

[10th July 1813.]

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for regulating the Stamp Duties on Bonds, Legal Proceedings, and other written or printed Instruments, and the Duties on Legacies and Successions in Personal Estate upon Intestates now payable in Great Britain, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof, certain Stamp Duties were imposed upon Promissory Notes for the Payment of Money to the Bearer on Demand; And it was enacted, that it should be lawful for any Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons, who should have made and issued any Promissory Notes for the Payment to the Bearer on Demand of any Sum of Money, not exceeding Two Pounds and Two Shillings each, duly stamped according to the Directions of the said Act, to re-issure the same from time to time after Payment thereof, as often as he or they should think fit, without being liable to pay any further Duty in respect thereof; and that it should also be lawful for any Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons who should have made and issued any Promissory Notes for the Payment to the Bearer on Demand of any Sum of Money exceeding Two Pounds and Two Shillings, and not exceeding One hundred Pounds each, duly stamped according to the Directions of the said Act, from time to time after the Payment thereof, and within the Term of Three Years from the Date thereof, but not afterwards, to re-issure any such Promissory Notes without being liable to pay any further Duty in respect thereof; And whereas divers Promissory Notes of the Description aforesaid, made and issued by Bankers or other Persons in Partnership, have after the Payment thereof been re-issued, by and as the Notes of some only of the Persons who originally made and issued the same, or by and as the Notes of One or more of such Persons, and some other Person or Persons taken into Partnership with him or them, without Payment of any further Duty in respect thereof, whereby Penalties have been incurred to a great Amount, and such Notes are not available to the Holders thereof for want of being duly stamped; And whereas it is expedient to indemnify such Persons as have incurred Penalties by the Mistake of the Law, and to exempt Promissory Notes of the Description aforesaid, for which the Duty shall have been once paid, from the Payment of any further Duty; and also to limit the time for re-issuing such Promissory Notes for any Sum not exceeding Two Pounds and Two Shillings: May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all Persons who shall have incurred any Penalty or Penalties by the ways and means aforesaid, shall be and they are hereby indemnified from the same; and that, from and after the passing of this Act, all Promissory Notes for the Payment to the Bearer on Demand, of any Sum of Money not exceeding One hundred Pounds, for which the proper Stamp Duties shall have been once paid according to the Provisions of the said Act, and which shall have been or shall be re-issued at any time or times before or after the passing of this Act, shall be deemed and taken not to have been liable to, and shall be exempted from the Payment of any further Duty by reason or on account of the same being or having been respectively re-issued by and as the Notes of some only of the Persons who originally made and issued the same, or by and as the Notes of any one or more of the Persons who originally made and issued the same, and any other Person or Persons jointly, in that such Notes shall not have been or shall not be in any manner created or altered after the first making and issuing thereof; and in that such Notes for any Sum exceeding Two Pounds and Two Shillings shall not have been or shall not be re-issued after the Period allowed by the said recited Act; and in that such Notes, for any Sum not exceeding Two Pounds and Two Shillings shall not be re-issued after the Period allowed by this Act.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing hereinbefore contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Person or Persons in Scotland, or to any Promissory Notes re-issued or to be re-issued by any Person or Persons in Scotland, or to any Promissory Notes upon which any Action or Suit shall have been commenced and be depending at the time of the passing of this Act for the Recovery of the Same therein mentioned, or which shall be necessary to be given in Evidence in any Action or Suit depending at the time of the passing of this Act, or which shall have been re-issued by any Person or Persons not being the original Maker or Makers thereof, against whom any Commission of Bankrupts shall have been issued and be in progress at the time of the passing of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirtieth, no Promissory Note for the Payment to the Bearer on Demand of any Sum not exceeding Two Pounds and Two Shillings, shall be re-issued by any Banker or Bankers, or other Person or Persons whatsoever in England (save and except the Governor and Company of the Bank of England), at any time after the Expiration of Three Years from the Date thereof; but that all such Promissory Notes for any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Two Pounds and Two Shillings (except those of the Bank of England), shall upon Payment thereof at any time after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirtieth, and after the Expiration of Three Years from the Date thereof, be deemed and taken to be thereupon wholly discharged, vacated and satisfied, and shall be no longer negotiable or available in any manner whatsoever, but

X. And be it further enacted, That in cases of Deeds and Instruments by the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign exempted from the ad valorem Duty on Mortgages, on the Ground of the same being made in pursuance of and conformably to any Agreement, Contract or Bond thereby elapsed with, and which shall actually have paid the said ad valorem Duty, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps, where it shall appear to them to be necessary for the Sake of Evidence, to cancel such exempted Deeds or Instruments to be also stamped with some particular Stamp, for denoting or testifying the Payment of the said ad valorem Duty; provided such Deeds or Instruments shall have paid the other Duties to which they shall be liable, and be produced duly stamped accordingly.

XI. And whereas the Power at present vested in the Commissioners of Stamps for the Allowance and Exchange of spoiled Stamps, are not sufficiently extensive, and it is expedient to authorize them to give Relief in the cases hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to allow as spoiled, and to cancel and give other Stamps in lieu of all such Stamps as shall have been used for or upon any Proscriptions to Ecclesiastical Benefices, which shall not be followed by Institution; or for or upon any Indorsements which shall have been signed by any Party or Parties, but which shall be afterwards found to be absolutely void as Law from the beginning, or which by reason of any Error or Mistake therein shall be afterwards found void for the Purpose originally intended, or which, by reason of the Death of any Person, whose Signature shall be necessary thereto, without having signed the same, or by reason of the Refusal of any such Person to sign the same, cannot be completed, so as to effect the Translation in the Form proposed, or which, for want of the Signature of some material and necessary Party, shall in fact be incomplete and insufficient for the Purpose intended, or which, by reason of the Refusal of any Person to affix under the same, or by the Refusal or Non-acceptance of any Office thereby granted, shall fail of their intended Purpose, or which, for want of Instrument or Registration within the time required by Law, shall become null and void, or which shall become useless in consequence of the Translation therein mentioned being effected by some other Instrument or Instruments duly stamped, so that the Instruments for which an Allowance of Stamps shall be claimed in the several cases aforesaid, shall be delivered up to the said Commissioners to be cancelled, and provided the Application for the Relief which the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to give, shall be made within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or within Six Calendar Months after the Date of the Instrument in Question, except where the same shall have been void for want of Instrument within Six Calendar Months from the Date, and in those cases, within Six Calendar Months next after the time shall be become void; and except where the same shall have been first abroad, and in those cases, within Six Calendar Months after the same shall be received back; and provided no Action shall have been brought or suit commenced, in which such Instrument could or would have been given or offered in Evidence; and provided all the Facts upon which the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to give Relief, shall be fully proved by Oath, or solemn Affirmation in the case of Quakers, to their Satisfaction.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing hereinbefore contained respecting the Allowance of spoiled Stamps, shall extend to Policies of Insurance, for which special Provision is already made by the Acts relating thereto.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the time for giving Relief, in the cases provided for by an Act of the Fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, where Stamps shall have been used of greater or less Value than the Instruments required, and where Stamps shall have been used for Instruments not liable to any Stamp Duty, shall be extended to Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or to Six Calendar Months after the Date of the Instruments bearing the Stamps misfold.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to allow as spoiled, and to cancel and give other Stamps in lieu of, all such Stamps as shall have been used for any Bills of Exchange or Promissory Notes, which shall have been signed by or on the behalf of the Drawers thereof, but which shall not have been delivered out of their Hands to the Payees therein named, or any Person on their behalf, or have been deposited with any Person as a Security for the Payment of Money, or have been any way negotiated, used or put in circulation, or have been made use of in any other manner whatsoever, and which Bills of Exchange shall not have been accepted by the Drawers or tendered for such Acceptance; provided that such Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes shall be brought for Allowance, and be delivered up to the said Commissioners to be cancelled, within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or within Six Calendar Months after the Date of such Bills and Notes, or after the Signing of the same, if they shall not bear any Date; and provided all the Facts upon which the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to give Relief, shall be fully proved by Oath or solemn Affirmation to their Satisfaction.

XV. And whereas by the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, it was enacted, That where any Person should have become bound to serve as a Clerk, in order to his Admission as an Attorney or Solicitor in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, or in any of the Courts of the Great Sessions in Wales, or of the Courts Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, or in any other Court of Record in England, by Articles of Clerkship duly stamped according to the Laws in force at the time of the Date and Execution thereof, and should, in consequence of the Death of his Master, or from any other Cause, find it necessary or expedient to enter into new Articles of Clerkship, for a new Term of Years, for the same Purpose, and such new Articles of Clerkship should be chargeable only with a Duty of One Pound and Ten Shillings, and the Counterpart or Duplicate thereof with the like Duty: And whereas some Persons have inadvertently used for such new Articles of Clerkship, Stamps of the same Value as by the said Act is required for original * Articles of Clerkship, whereby the high Duty on Articles of Clerkship hath been paid twice by or for the said Parties. Be it therefore further enacted, That in all cases of this Sort, which have occurred or shall occur, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to allow as spoiled, and to cancel and give other Stamps in lieu of the Stamps affixed on the Articles of Clerkship first entered into; provided the same shall be delivered up to them to be cancelled within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or within Six Calendar Months after the Expiration of the new Articles; and provided the Party applying for Relief shall pay the Duty of One Pound and Ten Shillings by the said Act charged on such new Articles, which shall in such case be stamped accordingly without Payment of any Penalty.

Articles

XVI. And be it further enacted, That where the Commissioners of Stamps are already authorized to allow as spoiled and to exchange any Stamps used for Instruments not fully written, or not signed by any Party, they the said Commissioners shall not make the Allowance, unless the Stamps shall be brought for that Purpose to them at their Head Office, or to their Offices at Edinburgh in case of Stamps issued in Scotland, within Six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or within Six Calendar Months after the time shall have been issued, if the same shall belong to Persons resident in London or Weymouth, or in Edinburgh, or within Five Miles thereof respectively, or within Twelve Calendar Months after the time shall have been issued, if belonging to Persons resident elsewhere.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to make such Rules and Regulations, and to require Affidavits or solemn Affirmations in the case of Quakers, of all such Facts and Circumstances, in regard to the Allowance of spoiled or useless Stamps, in all or any of the cases provided for by this or any former Act, as they shall in their Discretion judge necessary or expedient, for the Purpose of preventing Frauds and Evidences; such Affidavits or Affirmations to be made before the said Commissioners or any One or more of them, or before a Master in Chancery Ordinary or Extraordinary in England, or before any Person duly commissioned to take Affidavits by the Court of Session or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; who are lawfully respectively authorized to take the same, and administer the proper Oath or Affirmation for that Purpose.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person making any such Affidavit or Affirmation as aforesaid, shall knowingly and wilfully make a false Oath or Affirmation, or of concerning any of the Matters to be therein specified and in truth, every Person so offending and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be subject and liable to such Fines and Penalties, as by any Law now in force, Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

XIX. And whereas it is expedient to exempt certain Instruments from Stamp Duty; Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, where any additional Inventory of the Personal or Movable Estate and Effects of any Person deceased, which shall be exhibited to be recorded in any Commissary Court in Scotland, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majesty's reign would not be liable, under the said Act, to a Stamp Duty of greater Amount than the Duty already paid upon any former Inventory submitted and recorded of the Estate and Effects of the same Person, a such additional Inventory shall be exempted from all Stamp Duty; and that, from and after the passing of this Act, the several other Instruments hereinafter specified, shall also be exempted from all Stamp Duty: that is to say, All Bonds to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, which shall be entered into by Commissioners, for securing the Payment of the Stamp Duties on Playing Cards; and by the Proprietors, Printers or Publishers of Newspapers, for securing the Payment of the Duties upon the Advertisements therein contained; and by Statutors or others, who sell Paper stamped for the Purpose of being used for posting Newspapers, for the due Performance and Observance of the Matters and Things required of them by the Act passed in the Thirty eighth Year of His Majesty's reign for regulating the printing and Publication of Newspapers; and also all Warrants to for and defend in the Courts Baron of any Houses or Manors which hold Place in Admons or Sines for any Debt or Damages not exceeding Five Pounds, as well as all Pleas, Summons, Executions, Writs and other Proceedings, in or issuing out of such Courts.

* XX. And whereas certain Grants or Appointments to Office or Employments signed by His Majesty, or by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, have not from unreasonable circumstances been brought to the Commissioners of Stamps to be stamped within the time limited by Law, by reason whereof the same cannot now be stamped, without Payment of Penalties over and besides the Duties; and it is expedient to give Relief in such cases; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps, by and under the Authority of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being or any Three of them, to make to be stamped, such Grants or Appointments as aforesaid, and also any Grants or Appointments of the like Description, which may hereafter be granted to be stamped within the time allowed by Law on Payment only of the Duties due and payable for the same, without any Penalty; and thereupon all such Grants or Appointments shall be deemed good and valid; and all Persons shall be indemnified from all Penalties and Forfeitures on account thereof.

* XXI. And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of His Majesty's reign, intitled An Act to regulate the several Duties under the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon Stamp-Paper, Parchment, and Paper in Great Britain, and to grant new and additional Duties in lieu thereof; certain Duties were granted on Coaches and other Carriages employed as Public Stage Coaches or Carriages for conveying Passengers for Hire, and also on Licenses for keeping the same; which Duties are secured and collected by and under the Regulations and Provisions of the said last mentioned Act, and of an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His Majesty's reign, for repealing, among other Duties, the then existing Duties on Stage Coaches, and granting others in lieu thereof: And whereas it is expedient to make further Provision for preventing Frauds and Evidences of the Duties on Stage Coaches, and for regulating and extending the

And he it further enacted, That all the Houses and Buildings to be erected in the said Park called Mary le Bone Park, in Continuation Northward of the Streets called Portland Place and Harley Street, shall be of as high a Rate or Class of Building, and as good in all respects as the Houses or Buildings now erected in the said Streets called Portland Place and Harley Street respectively are; and that no new Building whenever shall be erected in Harley Field, or in the said Park, in the Line of either of the said Streets called Portland Place and Harley Street, so as to interrupt the Passage of the said intended Streets, or the View along the same.

LXXIX. And whereas the Houses, Streets, Squares, Passages and Places through which the proposed Alterations and Improvements are to be made and carried by virtue of this Act, are at present drained by means of a Sewer, called The King's Kitchen's' Pond Sewer; and such Sewer is incapable of supplying a proper Drainage for any additional Buildings: And whereas a great Increase of Houses, Streets and Buildings is now making, and is about to be made upon the Estate of The Crown, called Mary le Bone Park, all which will have no other Drainage than such insufficient Sewer, unless a new Sewer be constructed and made to receive such additional Drainage: And whereas the principal Street to be made in pursuance of this Act will communicate with the said Park, and will afford Facility for the making a Sewer to extend from the said Park to Charing Croft and from thence to the River Thames; and it will tend to relieve the said insufficient Drain, and be of great public Utility, if a new Sewer be made to drain the said Park, and the Houses and Buildings to be erected therein, and also the Streets, Squares, Passages and Places described in the above- said Map or Plan, and intended to be made, formed, erected and improved in pursuance of this Act; but inasmuch as such new Drain cannot be made without great Expence, and will principally be appropriated to the draining of the Estate of The Crown, it is expedient that the Expence of making and repairing such new Sewer should be defrayed in manner hereinafter mentioned, and that the same should be put under the Survey, Direction and Management of Persons to be authorized and appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned.

Power to make a new Sewer.

Be it therefore enacted, That a new Sewer, Drain or Watercourse, to extend from the South End of Mary le Bone Park at or near Portland Place, under the Street called Portland Place, along the whole Line of the principal New Street to be made and formed in pursuance of this Act unto Charing Croft, and from thence along the public Street to Strand Yard, into the River Thames, at a Place at or near the Lime Wharf, shall be formed by such Person or Persons as the Commissioners for executing this Act shall from time to time authorize and appoint by any Writing or Writings under their Hands and Seals; which said Person so to be authorized and appointed as aforesaid, or any Three or more of them, shall have full Power and Authority to make and form any Drains, Watercourses or Communications from any Part or Parts of the said Park called Mary le Bone Park, or from any Houses or Buildings erected or to be erected therein; and also from any of the Streets, Squares, Ways, Passages and Places through which any of the proposed Alterations or Improvements are intended to be made in pursuance of this Act, and which are mentioned and described in the said Map or Plan, or from any House or Buildings erected or to be erected within the Limits mentioned and described in the said Map or Plan, or of the Drainage therewith hereby allowed to carry off or drain the Water from all or any of the said Houses, Buildings, Streets or Places into the said Principal or Common Sewer to be made as aforesaid, and for their Purpose or any of them, to stop up, divert or alter any Sewers, Drains, Tunnels or Watercourses, which may be found in making the said new Sewer, and which may cross the Line of such new Sewer, or which may (in the Judgment of the Person so to be authorized and appointed as aforesaid, or any Three or more of them) be necessary or expedient to be stopped up, diverted or altered for the Purpose aforesaid or any of them: Provided always, that all Damage which may be done by means of stopping up, diverting or altering any such Drains, Tunnels or Watercourses, shall be made good by the Commissioners under this Act out of the Monies raised by virtue thereof.

Proviso.

Commissioners authorized to borrow Money

Sewers.

LXXX. And, in order to enable the said Persons so to be authorized and appointed as aforesaid, or any Three or more of them, to form and make such new Sewers, Watercourses and Drains, and to keep the same in Repair, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners for executing this Act, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of the Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of them, and notwithstanding any Provisions, Restrictions or Claims contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to His Majesty's Land Revenue, to borrow and take up at Interest, from time to time, such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds, over and above any other Sum or Sums of Money hereby authorized to be so borrowed and taken up, which they the said Commissioners, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, shall judge necessary and expedient for their Purpose and for securing the Repayment thereof, in such manner and form, and by such means as hereinafter mentioned, to grant, demise or mortgage any Part or Parts which to them shall seem fit, of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments hereinafter authorized to be mortgaged for raising Money for the other Purpose of this Act, so as the same Provisions be not included in any prior subsisting Mortgage which shall be made in pursuance of this Act, and to issue and apply the Money so to be raised from time to time, as they shall see Occasion, in or towards defraying the Expence of forming, making and repairing such new Sewers, Drains and Watercourses.

Power to make
Borrow or delay
Repayment of Sewers.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That, in order to repay the Monies so to be raised and applied, and the Interest of the Monies so to be borrowed as aforesaid, and to defray the Expence of making and keeping in Repair such new Sewers, Drains and Watercourses as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Persons so to be authorized and appointed as aforesaid, or any Three or more of them, to make any Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, by or equal Parity Rate from time to time, as they shall see Occasion, upon the Owners, Proprietors or Occupiers of any Houses, Buildings or Lands, situate in Mary le LXXXII. Provided nevertheless, and he it further enacted, That no Person paying to the Rate or Assessment declared to be raised and collected by virtue of this Act, shall, during the Continuance of the Payment of such Rate or Assessment, be subject or liable to the Payment of any other Sewer Rate or Assessment, in respect of the Premises for which he or she shall be rated or assessed under or by virtue of this Act.

LXXXIII. Provided nevertheless, and he it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to prevent the present Commissioners of Sewers, so long as the present Commission shall continue in force, from making up or collecting from the Owners, Proprietors, or Occupiers of any Houses, Buildings or Lands within their several Divisions (other than and except those Situated in Mary & New Park aforesaid, or in any of the Streets, Squares, Ways, Passages or Places within the Limits mentioned and described in the said Map or Plan and Book of Reference, or of the Deviation hereby allowed) all such Rates or Assessments as might or could have been assessed upon or collected from any such Owners, Proprietors, or Occupiers, if the Drainage of such Houses, Buildings or Lands had continued to be performed by the present Commissioners of Sewers, notwithstanding such Drainage may hereafter be received into, or wholly or partly performed by the said intended new Sewers.
